Family Faith: Building up the Body of Christ

By Karen Foster, Family Faith Formation and Safe Environment Coordinator

Family Faith Formation begins today and I'm so excited to share that we have 134 families (and 209 children) registered for the Family Faith, Hispanic/Latino Sacramental Prep, and Teen Confirmation programs and we have 55 undergrad, grad, and young professionals who have answered God's call to serve as catechists this year.

As families begin their faith journeys, I'd like to introduce the theme for Family Faith this year: Building up the Body of Christ in our Homes and in the Community. We will focus on equipping parents to fulfill their roles as the primary educators of their children's Catholic faith formation. Resources will be provided to the parents to teach their children to love and know Jesus through prayer, service, and love of neighbor within the family home and in the community. Creating friendships and building community among parents and families is also an objective. In order to promote further family conversation at home, a common thread will be provided between what the children are learning with their catechists in the classrooms and what the parents are learning in the parent presentations.

Our first session is Building up the Body of Christ through Service. We will explore ways of incorporating service within the family unit, in our local community, as well as in far off places. We will learn about "disinterested service", which is choosing to serve for the good of another rather than for one's own self interest. This message of disinterested service was also echoed by Saint Paul in his letter to the Philippians (Phil 2:1-11) - "Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vain-glory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but [also] everyone for those of others." As a great example of putting this theme into action, a guest panel of resident parishioners and students will reflect on their recent outreach trip to a Guatemalan garbage dump community and share ways to help those in need.

Our next session will focus on Building up the Body of Christ through Prayer. Fr. Dan will convey the importance of family prayer, give suggestions of different types of prayer, and provide examples of various ways to pray.

Building up the Body of Christ through Celebration will bring us into the Advent season and will provide different ways to incorporate the liturgical seasons and celebrations into family life.

Building up the Body of Christ with Love in the Home will teach us how to create loving and peaceful family environments at home by learning what resonates with spouses and with children.

We will be Building up the Body of Christ by Providing Love and Security with our new safe environment program called Circle of Grace. Parents will learn how to have conversations with their children to let them know that God's love is always with them and that each of them is unique and special and should be respected and treated as such. Children will be empowered to actively participate in a safe environment.

Building up the Body of Christ through Receiving and Living the Sacraments will round out our year. Understanding the importance of the Sacraments is key to receiving God's grace and to growing your faith and the faith of your children.

The catechists and the Faith Formation Team look forward to growing our faith and building up the Body of Christ in your homes, in the community, and at Saint Mary Student Parish.

Respect Life Month

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY : EQUIPPING THE FAMILY, SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN

Today is "Safe Haven Sunday." With the Catholic Church throughout the U.S., as part of Respect Life Month, we acknowledge that families today face a challenge to protect children and young adults from explicit images and videos on the Internet that distort our understanding of human sexuality.

What follows are five suggestions from Ryan Foley in his article, "Raising Children in a Pornographic World." You can read the whole article here: t.ly/N96FG

1. Parents, teach your children the true meaning of human sexuality and educate them in chastity.

First and foremost, parents must emphasize the beauty and sacredness of the body and sexuality, and the truth that we are made for lasting love. We are each made in God's image and therefore called to love, for "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8).

2. Be aware of the widespread availability of pornography and the fact that many children are exposed to it at young ages.

The average age of first exposure to pornography is eleven.² Over a quarter of children see pornography before beginning puberty, a percentage that has increased over past generations.³ By the age of eighteen, over 90 percent of boys and 60 percent of girls will have accessed pornography online at least once.⁴

With each new generation now growing up with the Internet, being exposed to pornography is no longer the exception but the norm. Some children are exposed to pornography inadvertently when online. Others are exposed because of natural curiosities about human sexuality. The younger children are, the more of an effect it can have on their young brains. Study after study shows that young people who seek out and consume online pornography are more likely to have "recreational" attitudes about sex.⁵ Moreover, researchers have also found there is a significant correlation between frequent porn use and feelings of loneliness and major depression.⁶ Children and teens who view pornography in effect receive an education about sexuality from what they are viewing.

3. If you struggle with pornography use, seek your own healing to be a good example and witness of chaste love for your children.

4. Be vigilant about what technology you allow in your home, and establish clear boundaries by installing filtering software and educating your children about technology use.

5. Cultivate loving, trusting relationships with your children so they feel comfortable approaching you with questions about sexuality or sexual images they may have inadvertently seen.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

We have Eucharistic Adoration on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday 5:45-9 pm, and Thursday (3:45-4:45 pm)

Here is the link for our Wednesday night adoration signup:

Reading I	Is	5: 1-7
Psalm	Ps	80: 9, 12-16, 19-20
Reading II	Phil	4: 6-9
Gospel	Mt	21:33-43

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel. At vintage time the master will return to receive the harvest. May we bear fruit in plenty, and be pleasing in his sight by living lives that are marked by love and respect.

OCTOBER 15 - Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Is	25: 6-10a
Psalm	Ps	23: 1-6
Reading II	Phil	4: 12-14, 19-20
Gospel	Mt	22:1-14

The Lord invites us to a banquet, one of the favorite images of messianic times. This banquet is spread before us and can fully satisfy our needs, yet how often have we refused the Lord's invitation to share in the riches prepared for us?
