Vocations and Black Catholic History Month

By Father Kyle Shinseki, Pastor

In the month of November, we recall the many holy women and men who have gone before us in the faith, both those who have been formally canonized by the Catholic Church as saints and those whose faithful lives are known to God alone. These sisters and brothers in Christ inspire us in our own journey and their courage and conviction might even prompt us to consider a vocation to consecrated life, the diaconate, or the priesthood. Among these role models for us as Catholics are Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman and Venerable Augustus Tolton.

Since 1990, the Catholic Church in the United States has observed the month of November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the long history and proud heritage of Black Catholics. Last week, we celebrated National Vocation Awareness Week here at St. Mary with a Vocations Fair featuring representatives from six groups to promote and support those considering vocations as religious sisters, brothers, and priests. Sister Thea and Father Augustus embraced God's invitation to serve the Church in this way despite the immense challenges they faced.

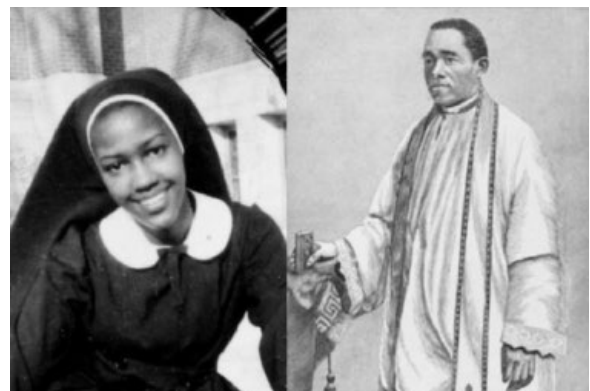

Born in 1937, African American Sister Thea Bowman, F.S.P.A. navigated the challenges of racism, segregation, and the struggle for civil rights in her native Mississippi. She dedicated her life to spreading the joy of the Gospel, sharing her rich cultural heritage, and promoting racial reconciliation. She said, "We unite ourselves with Christ's redemptive work when we reconcile, when we make peace, when we share the good news that God is in our lives, when we reflect to our brothers and sisters God's healing, God's forgiveness, God's unconditional love."

Sister Thea called us to work in cross-racial solidarity in order to seek the common good. Best-selling author Heather McGhee describes the "solidarity dividend," we enjoy if we work across differences to eliminate the impacts of racism and embrace diversity. McGhee explains how, "our fates are linked; an injury to one is an injury to all." Similarly, Saint John Paul II said, "[Solidarity] is...a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good; that is to say, to the good of all and of each individual because we are really responsible for all."

More than a century earlier, Father Augustus Tolton was born into slavery in 1854, then fled with his family to Illinois, a free state. He overcame great odds and institutional racism to become a priest. After being excluded from his parochial school, then rejected from every American seminary, he completed his studies in Rome and was ordained in 1886. He said, "It was said that I would be the only priest of my race in America and would not likely succeed," yet the parish to which he was assigned in Chicago grew from 30 to 600 parishioners in just two years.

Sister Thea Bowman and Father Augustus Tolton are two of six Black Americans, including Henriette DeLille, Julia Greeley, Mary Lange, and Pierre Toussaint, who are on the path to sainthood. Today, there are over 200 million Black Catholics in the world, with 3 million in the U.S., including some 400 religious sisters and 250 priests. Black Catholic history began in the earliest days of the Church, as noted in the Acts of the Apostles (8:26-40) with the conversion of the Ethiopian Eunuch by Philip the Deacon, which predates the conversion of Saint Paul.

This weekend, we honor the gifts of Black Catholics in our St. Mary community through our Black Catholic History Month Mass. A Place at the Table, by the Midwest Jesuit Province, explains how, "Jesuit apostolates participate in the mission of Jesus Christ, the Reconciler, by recognizing the dignity of every person; by cultivating a culture of hospitality where others may encounter the Risen Lord; and by advancing God's efforts to gather all persons into a community of belonging." May this celebration be one more step in our journey of reconciliation.

Servant of God Thea Bowman & Venerable Augustus Tolton

CATHOLIC THINKER'S BOOK CLUB

7:00 PM ON THE 2ND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Please join us on Tue. Nov. 14th at 7 p.m. in the Loyola Room to discuss Mysteries of the Middle Ages by Thomas Cahill.

The author shows how this period gave rise to feminism, science, and the arts. Rather than providing a history of Europe from the 6th through the 14th centuries, he presents enjoyable portraits of individuals such as Hildegard of Bingen, Eleanor of Aquitaine, Abelard and Heloise, St. Francis, and Dante. This beautiful book also contains margins filled with designs like those in medieval manuscripts as well as many photos of masterpieces of medieval art.

Please contact John with questions: jgpone@sbcglobal.net.

HELP NEEDED!

Leukemia Patient Needs Temporary Housing near Ann Arbor While Undergoing Medical Care

(From now - mid February)

A Catholic couple from southwestern Michigan is in desperate need of temporary housing from roughly now/November 13th – mid February while the husband continues recovery from a bone marrow transplant, (received on Oct 30th).

The housing must be within 30 minutes of University of Michigan Hospital, so that the patient is close by for frequent medical care and possible complications. It does not need to be a fancy place – only clean and with a kitchen. It does need to be removed from others as the patient has no immune system to fight any sort of germs. With this in mind, an apartment, small house, or something like a “mother-in-law” suite would be ideal. They can pay some monthly rent, (though the lower the better as their plight with this aggressive leukemia has caused astronomical bills and forced both spouses out of work). This couple has been exhausting the housing search but have not been able to find something that is both affordable and meets their needs.

This is truly a gracious, kind, and gentle couple. They would be beyond grateful for any housing help.

Please reach out to their contact person: Abbie (269-625-3985; abschesk@umich.edu), with any questions or willingness to help in this matter.

Join us for a Chaldean mass on Tuesday November 14 at 7:30 pm. After mass, there will be a reception. All are welcome!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

“One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least”, as if it were a “waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ”.

Instead, we should rediscover “the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him.”-Pope Francis

Eucharistic Adoration is on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday (5:45-9 pm), and Thursday (3:45-4:45 pm)

Saturday November 18th

8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Sts. James, Cornelius & Cyprian, 1010 S. Lansing St., Mason

All Baptized Christians are given supernatural gifts - the power of God, the power to do what Jesus promises: "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do." (John 14:12).

These supernatural gifts, called charisms, are very real, and necessary to not only do what God empowers us to do but commands us to do, including prophecy, healing, discernment of spirits, extraordinary faith, and many more. Yet, most of us do not experience them, or even know they exist! This Workshop will help you to identify, discern and activate the power of God infused in you, awaken and manifest His supernatural life and in your life!

• The ancient teachings of the Church & the Church's official teaching on how the charisms of the Holy Spirit work in your life and in the life of your parish community

• The five steps of discerning the charisms that God has given you

• The signs and characteristics of the 24 most common charisms

• How discerning your charisms can transform & change your life

• How your charisms can change the world and spread the Gospel

• How to identify, discern and use your supernatural charisms

• How activating your charism can renew our parishes

Sunday Readings

NOVEMBER 12– Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Wis	6: 12-16
Psalm	Ps	63: 2-8
Reading II	1 Thes	4: 13-18 or 4: 13-14
Gospel	Mt	25: 1-13

We seek many things in this life, but we should seek first the Lord and his wisdom. By so living, we will keep vigil for the Lord as we await his return in glory.

NOVEMBER 19– Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Prv	31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
Psalm	Ps	128: 1-5
Reading II	1 Thes	5:1-6
Gospel	Mt	25: 14-30 or 25:14-15, 19-21

Those who use their gifts and talents in service of one another, especially the poor and the needy, are blessed indeed. They shall be known as children of the light, and will be ready for the Lord's return.
