Parish Insight

Dear St. Mary Family:

We are at an exciting juncture in the history of St. Mary Student Parish. It is with great optimism and a shared sense of purpose that we announce the initiation of a strategic planning process. This plan, which we intend to help guide us in our collective decision-making from 2024 to 2030, is designed to help us identify key opportunities to build up the body of Christ and witness to God's mercy and love. Most importantly, after a semester of planning and consultation with our leadership team, I believe strongly that this process must be consultative, engaging the diverse members of our community, and faithful to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In this, my first year as pastor, I have made it a priority to better understand what St. Mary means to all of you. I have been moved by the stories that you have shared with me about how you have found God's presence here in the community, in the Eucharist, and in important sacramental moments in your life. Thank you for your willingness to share your faith experiences with me. I am excited to announce the planning has begun for our Centennial Celebration, which I hope will give us time to hear each other's faith stories and better understand our shared history.

To help support our major strategic efforts and to harness the energy associated with our Centennial Celebration, I believe the time is right to explore the possibility of launching a capital campaign. It is crucial that our strategic priorities be aligned with our allocation of resources, ensuring that this momentous occasion becomes a catalyst for lasting growth and development.

I am committed to ensuring that all of these initiatives: the strategic plan, Centennial planning, and a potential capital campaign are shaped by the voices and experiences of our parishioners. Your input is not only valuable; it is essential! This process is an opportunity to deepen our community bonds by sharing what you cherish about St. Mary and envisioning our future together. As we embrace a consultative and Spirit-led process, I invite you to provide input in two ways:

1. Write a letter addressing one or both of the following questions:

- a. As you look back to your experience of St. Mary, what do you most love and treasure? All thoughts/memories/experiences are welcome. 500 words/1 page single space maximum.
- b. As you look ahead to the next 5-7 years at St. Mary, what opportunities for growth do you imagine? Share any words/ideas/dreams that you feel are Spirit-led that you want the strategic plan steering committee to consider.

Those interested in submitting their input may fill out a Google form \(t.ly/EGTSA\) or send a one page letter to stmarys@umich.edu answering the two above questions by 5pm on Thursday, January 25th.

2. Attend an informational kickoff meeting on Jan. 31st from 6:30pm-8pm in Donnelly Hall to learn more about these initiatives, to share your perspectives, to listen to the voice of the Spirit through others, and prayerfully consider how you might feel called to get involved.

As we begin this new year, I am filled with hope and excitement at the journey we undertake together, guided by the Holy Spirit and united in our love for St. Mary. I invite you to come pray, reflect, and dream with us as we engage in this strategic planning process!

In Christ,

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

We have Eucharistic Adoration on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday 5:45-9 pm (Rosary for Life from 6:00-6:20 pm, Praise & Worship from 8:00-9:00 pm), and Thursday (3:45-4:45 pm) Here is the link for our Wednesday night adoration signup: t.ly/bCXbA

Thank you for supporting this ministry!

Pastoral Letter on Christian Stewardship

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.

(1 Peter 4:10)

Today is the Epiphany of the Lord. Led by faith and reason, the magi have travelled from the east in order to seek the newborn king of the Jews. Now we begin to glimpse the salvation that has been prepared for all the peoples of the earth. Jesus Christ will not only be the glory of the Jewish people but also “a light for revelation to the Gentiles” (Luke 2:32). This is the essence of today’s epiphany.

Sacred Scripture doesn’t actually contain the name nor the number of magi. It is tradition that suggests to us that they were a triumvirate of kingly travelers known as Balthazar, Caspar, and Melchior.

What scripture does tell us is that the magi were “overjoyed at seeing the star” which led them to the child with Mary whereupon “[t]hey prostrated themselves and did him homage” before they “opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh” (Matthew 2:11-12).

What do these facts reveal to us? I think it is this: That there is an innate human need to offer praise, worship and sacrifice upon encountering Almighty God. This has been true of all cultures and in all generations. This is true of you and me. The founder of the Society of Jesus, Saint Ignatius of Loyola (1491 –1556), identifies this shared human reality in the first foundational principle of his Spiritual Exercises, stating:

“The human person is created to praise, reverence and serve God, and by so doing to save his or her soul.” (#23 of The Spiritual Exercises)

This is why we were loved into existence by God. He is our beginning and, by virtue of our cooperation with the grace of God, our ultimate end. Why then were other things created? Saint Ignatius answers that question in the second foundational principle of his Spiritual Exercises, stating:

“The other things on the face of the earth are created for human beings in order to help them pursue the end for which they are created. It follows from this that one must use other created things in so far as they help towards one’s end, and free oneself from them in so far as they are obstacles to one’s end.” (#23 of The Spiritual Exercises)

This rightly ordered use of created things is foundational to what we call stewardship. Christian stewardship is recognizing that everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God and, thus, being grateful and generous in response to that divine beneficence. It is the wise and generous marshalling of our time, our talent and our treasure so as to love God more deeply, serve others more unstintingly and, in doing so, accrue an ever more abundant life unto ourselves (John 10:10).

God first. Others second. Ourselves last. Thereby lies our path to happiness in this life and salvation in the next. As Our Lord himself advises: “[S]eek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides” (Matthew 6:33).

St. Mary Student Parish

The new year is often a time for taking stock of our lives. It therefore seems appropriate to conduct a threefold examination of conscience as to how we are living Christian stewardship with particular regards to the use of our time, our talent and our treasure for the glory of God and salvation of souls.

First, time: Do I give my first and last thought of each day to Jesus Christ, my alpha and omega? Do I prioritize time each day for meditative prayer spent in the presence of Our Lord? Do I ensure there is time in my week for Sunday Mass or, even, daily Mass as well as regular confession? Do I recognize that prayer is more important than activity and that if I am too busy to pray I am too busy?

Second, talent: Am I desirous to know God's plan for my life and to follow it wherever it leads? Am I aware that God has bestowed certain talents and charisms upon me which I am to deploy generously in order to save my own soul and serve those other members of the Body of Christ who are depending on me for their salvation? (1 Corinthians 12). In making career choices, am I primarily motivated by the will of God or by the love of money or desire for worldly prestige? Do I work with an order and diligence that recognizes all honest human tasks can be sanctified or do I do my work badly, waste time or cause others to waste time?

Third, treasure: Do I recognize the truth that everything I have is a gift from God and that giving back to God will help orient my entire life to Him and his plan? Do I give the first fruits of the wealth I've been entrusted with to the service of the Church and those in need? Do I place my trust in God by giving sacrificially in imitation of the widow and her two coins (Luke 21:1-4) or do I only give from my surplus, trying to meet my own needs first rather than prioritizing God in all I do?

In the weeks and months to come I will focus some of my teaching on Christian stewardship, and how living the call to stewardship is fundamental to growing as a missionary disciple, helping us all foster greater Christian stewardship in our daily lives. One point worth noting now, however, is this: Stewardship is primarily about our need to give rather than giving to a need.

I have based much of this catechesis on stewardship upon the thought of Saint Ignatius of Loyola. Hence, it seems appropriate to conclude this pastoral letter with his Suscipe prayer. Suscipe is the Latin word for "receive". Let us pray: Take Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all that I have and possess. Thou hast given all to me. To Thee, O Lord, I return it. All is Thine, dispose of it wholly according to Thy will. Give me Thy love and thy grace, for this is sufficient for me. Amen.

Assuring you of my prayers, I am sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Earl Boyea

Bishop of Lansing

Through baptism we have been joined to the Lord who calls us to be his disciples. How well do we listen to his voice? How willing are we to do his will?

JANUARY 21—Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I    Jon     3: 1-5, 10
Psalm        Ps        25: 4-9
Reading II    1 Cor    7: 29-31
Gospel        Mk        1:14-20

The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways, thus experiencing the Lord's compassion. Do we repent when we hear the preaching of Jesus? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom?
