ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

3^{ER} DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Un poco más adelante, vio a Santiago y a Juan, hijos de Zebedeo, que estaban en una barca, remendando sus redes. Los llamó, y ellos, dejando en la barca a su padre con los trabajadores, se fueron con Jesús. - Mc 1, 19-20

WELCOME TO ORDINARY TIME...

BY MICHAEL REGAN, CAMPUS MISSIONARY DISCIPLE

Welcome to Ordinary Time. Christmas is over. Lent is a month away. And we are stuck in the dreary gloom of a Michigan winter, where the days sometimes feel longer than a Pistons' losing streak.

It can be easy in these ordinary weeks, when the messages of preparation and rejoicing fade and the messages of repentance have yet to take hold, to lose ourselves to the passing of time. To save Christ for Lent or Easter now that He has been put away with the nativity sets. To let our faith be one that waits for the extraordinary. And this is to miss the whole point.

In last week's Gospel, John begins his description of Christ's public ministry. Jesus is roughly thirty years old and will die within four years. He has already lived about 90% of His life. Yet today's Gospel reading is not from John 15 but from the second half of its first chapter. Three decades sit between two miracles: the birth of Christ at Christmas and the turning of water to wine at the wedding feast of Cana, which begins John 2. Three decades that we dwell little on and say little of. Ordinary Time spans weeks or months rather than years, but perhaps we can begin to see the parallel.

In the first three decades of His life, Jesus did not perform miracles. He did not actively change the world to any sort of irregular extent. He merely lived and learned the life of an ordinary person before his public emergence. Why? It is not because those years didn't matter. Christ's first thirty years, much like His father Joseph, should not be taken as unimportant because of the lack of words attributed to them. Christ changed the world only after being forged in the fire of the ordinary. But God did not need this. He did it because we do.

Across all four Gospels, there is just one chapter (Luke 2) that offers any sort of description of the parenting of a young Jesus by Mary and Joseph. And three times, Luke tells us that the Holy Family consistently committed to following the Lord's Law, which was the Law of Moses at the time, through circumcision (verse 21), purification (22), and annual attendance of the Pass-over feast in Jerusalem (41). We will never know how exactly Mary and Joseph raised Jesus, and we need not know. There is no rule except for this: to follow, as well and often as we can, the Word and Way of the Lord.

That begins and ends with getting ourselves in a pew (or a chair) every weekend. Mass, maybe especially in these winter weeks, can feel an underwhelming hassle. It can seem so ordinary to repeat the same prayers, sing the same songs, and walk up the same aisle. And it is, but these are among the ordinary habits that forge our faith into something greater. Just as we can't access an elevator without walking into the lobby, we can't access the wondrous nature of the Mass or of prayer if we lack the consistent habits of presence and purpose.

Let's return briefly to that miracle at the wedding feast of Cana. Jesus could have chosen any number of miracles as his grand entrance to the fray. That loaves and fishes one was pretty cool. Yet we find Him at a friend's wedding making drinks. We find Him exposing the extraordinary on the most ordinary of terms. And this is how the Mass works. There is no lightshow. No smoke. No mirrors. Bruce Buffer is not here to tell us that JESUS CHRIST HAS ENTERED THE ARENA during the consecration. But He is there, in the ordinary form of bread and wine but the extraordinary, life-giving matter of Body and Blood. If we do anything with the blessing of these weeks of Ordinary Time, let it be the continuation or beginning of the ordinary habits that bring us closer to our extraordinary Father.

OUR MISSION

St. Mary Student Parish is a welcoming, inclusive, caring, and diverse Catholic community, uniting residents and students.

We are Christ-centered with the Eucharist as the source of holiness in our vibrant liturgical life.

Inspired by Ignatian spirituality, we live a faith that does justice, reaching out to the marginalized.

As an apostolic parish, we are committed to ongoing formation of Christian witness, discipleship, and leadership.

A LETTER FROM THE CHURCH ENHANCEMENT COMMITTEE

Dear St. Mary parishioners,

The Church Enhancement Committee, initiated by Fr. Jim Gartland in February of 2022 in preparation for our 100th anniversary in December 2024, has been meeting regularly over the past two years. We're a diverse group of resident and student parishioners working towards enhancing the sacredness, dignity, and beauty of the interior sanctuary. We are excited to share the following updates!

You may remember the chair survey last spring when you were asked to evaluate two chairs that were being considered as replacements for our current, well-worn chairs. We're happy to report that an order for the new chairs has been placed, with a delivery date at the end of January.

The committee has also commissioned a new crucifix, which is being hand carved by local sculptor, Mike Kapetan. We have been blessed to work with Mike, who has created beautiful and meaningful carved wooden pieces for many churches and organizations, both locally and nation-wide. We prayerfully considered and discussed the qualities of a crucifix that would be inspirational to our diverse, multi-cultural, Catholic parish. We do not yet have a completion date for the crucifix, but we will keep you updated... stay tuned! (You can view some of Mike's prior work at his website: www.michaelkapetansculptor.com/portfolio/spiritual-images)

WANT A MORE FRUITFUL LENT? TRY A LITTLE SCRIPTURE THIS SEASON!

SCC groups begin the week of February 5th.

Lent will be upon us soon (Ash Wednesday is Feb. 14) and it's time to think about how you might enrich your prayer life and spend extra time with God's Word. Joining one of our Small Church Communities can help!

SCC groups will meet for seven weeks to discuss faith, God's presence in our world, as well as the meaning of the Sunday scripture readings. We have groups to fit most schedules, as well as special interests, including a Spanish speaking group, an Ignatian Spirituality topic, or "Just Faith" social justice issues.

Here's what one group member had to say about the SCC experience:

"The Holy Spirit was clearly present in our discussions, bringing great richness to our sharing, bringing each person's uniqueness to our group. This brought far greater insight to the weekly Scripture passages that we reviewed, making the readings at the Sunday liturgy more powerful and meaningful."

Ignatian SCC Lent 2024: Focusing on Prayer

This Lent, join a five-part series of guided discussions on prayer. The sessions will address how we can become more transparent in our conversations with God. In our prayer practice do we filter certain topics in our conversation with God? What is it that we tell God? Ignatian Spirituality is at the heart of these sessions reminding us that God's love is unconditional. Each session is based on chapters from the book "Praying the Truth" by William Barry, SJ.

Etta MacDonagh-Dumler will lead the in-person sessions beginning on Wednesday, Feb 21 with the topics of "Prayer as Relationship" and "Prayer and Friendship". Additional topics from the book will be discussed on the following Wednesday evenings: Feb 28, March 6, March 13, and March 20, from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm. If you decide to register for this Lenten SCC group, you will need to purchase a copy of the book: Praying the Truth by William A. Barry.

Sunday Readings

JANUARY 21—Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Jon 3: 1-5, 10
 Psalm Ps 25:4-9
 Reading II 1 Cor 7:29-31
 Gospel Mk 1:14-20

The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways, thus experiencing the Lord's compassion. Do we repent when we hear the teaching of Jesus? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom?

JANUARY 28—Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Dt 18:15-20
 Psalm Ps 95:1-2, 6-9
 Reading II 1 Cor 7:32-35
 Gospel Mk 1:21-28

As Moses challenged the Israelites to listen to God's voice, so we are called to hear the voice of Jesus and live out His teachings by what we say and do, whatever our vocation in life may be.
