ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

---

4<sup>º</sup> DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Había en la sinagoga un hombre poseído por un espíritu inmundo, que se puso a gritar: "¿Qué quieres tú con nosotros, Jesús de Nazaret? ¿Has venido a acabar con nosotros? Ya sé quién eres: el Santo de Dios". Jesús le ordenó: "¡Cállate y sal de él!" - Mc 1, 23-25

Parish Insight

VOLUNTEERING AT THE WARMING CENTER CHANGED MY LIFE

BY SILVANA GRAF, VOLUNTEER AT DAYTIME WARMING CENTER

I will not give money to beggars on the street. I'm usually intimidated by their presence. I fear that cash given directly to them might go to feed addictions, and I'm not helping in a meaningful way. This may not always be true, but I prefer to give fruit or nuts to people asking for money. Additionally, I give cash donations to reputable institutions that show their finances with transparency and responsibly help the poor with what they truly need: a job (if they can keep one), clothes, shelter, nutrition, mental health services, warmth, love, and respect.

The Warming Center at St. Mary's gave me a new opportunity. In a safe space for the unhoused individuals and me, I can look them in the eye, serve meals to them, and exchange smiles like equal human beings. Each person has a story of how they became homeless, but it's not my business to judge. I'm there to support them in that moment, providing nourishment with love and respect. I'm not afraid of them anymore. They have become whole perfect beings to me. When you let love guide you instead of your critical thinking, you see the beautiful, unique beings they are.

I've been collecting warm clothing and shoes for them because I noticed some were getting wet in the rain. An intense cold was coming, and they were unprepared. We sometimes have such an excess of everything in our homes, and we have no clue about the basic needs of others right in our backyard. Being originally from Peru, I never imagined that in the United States of America, the most powerful country on Earth, there was no adequate safety net for a mentally ill person, someone suffering from severe addictions or just going through a rough patch in their life. I thought those were third-world problems.

I realize that homelessness has many causes and is a complex issue, but I invite everyone to volunteer to help our fellow human beings who need our support. They won't take more than they need because they must haul it with them. They need to travel light. Have you ever thought about that? I learned it from James, who was trying clothes on in the donations room. I tried convincing him to take more things, but he refused and explained. What an eye-opener that was!

It's a good spiritual practice to get in the shoes of an unhoused person and think in detail what a day of that person's life is like. We can learn a lot from them by volunteering at the Warming Center. I promise they will help you keep things in perspective in your own life.

Homelessness can seem overwhelming, but you can make a difference for a few individuals on a given day, which might mean the world to someone! I guarantee you will never be the same; you will hold our shared humanity in your heart forever.

Thanks to the generosity of our parishioners, the Warming Center has been able to serve 80 to 100 people experiencing homelessness each day throughout the month of January.

SCC GROUPS BEGIN THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 5TH.

Lent will be upon us soon (Ash Wednesday is Feb. 14) and it's time to think about how you might enrich your prayer life and spend extra time with God's Word. Joining one of our Small Church Communities can help!

SCC groups will meet for seven weeks to discuss faith, God's presence in our world, as well as the meaning of the Sunday scripture readings. We have groups to fit most schedules, as well as special interests, including a Spanish speaking group, an Ignatian Spirituality topic, or "Just Faith" social justice issues.

Here's what one group member had to say about the SCC experience:

"The Holy Spirit was clearly present in our discussions, bringing great richness to our sharing, bringing each person's uniqueness to our group. This brought far greater insight to the weekly Scripture passages that we reviewed, making the readings at the Sunday liturgy more powerful and meaningful."

Ignatian SCC Lent 2024: Focusing on Prayer

This Lent, join a five-part series of guided discussions on prayer. The sessions will address how we can become more transparent in our conversations with God. In our prayer practice do we filter certain topics in our conversation with God? What is it that we tell God? Ignatian Spirituality is at the heart of these sessions reminding us that God's love is unconditional. Each session is based on chapters from the book "Praying the Truth" by William Barry, SJ.

Etta MacDonagh-Dumler will lead the in-person sessions beginning on Wednesday, Feb 21 with the topics of "Prayer as Relationship" and "Prayer and Friendship". Additional topics from the book will be discussed on the following Wednesday evenings: Feb 28, March 6, March 13, and March 20, from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm. If you decide to register for this Lenten SCC group, you will need to purchase a copy of the book: Praying the Truth by William A. Barry.

Sunday Readings

JANUARY 28 – Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Dt	18:15-20
Psalm	Ps	95:1-2, 6-9
Reading II	1 Cor	7:32-35
Gospel	Mk	1:21-28

As Moses challenged the Israelites to listen to God’s voice, so we are called to hear the voice of Jesus and live out his teachings by what we say and do, whatever our vocation in life may be.

FEBRUARY 4 – Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Jb	7:1-4, 6-7
Psalm	Ps	147:1-6
Reading II	1 Cor	9:16-19, 22-23
Gospel	Mk	1:29-39

Job’s cry of hopelessness stands in marked contrast to the hope of those who put their trust in Jesus, who “heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds”. Such are the blessings of the good news.
