ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

4^º DOMINGO DE LA CUARESMA

“Todo aquel que hace el mal, aborrece la luz y no se acerca a ella, para que sus obras no se descubran. En cambio, el que obra el bien conforme a la verdad, se acerca a la luz, para que se vea que sus obras están hechas según Dios”. - Jn 3, 20-21

UNDERGRADUATE MEN'S RETREAT REFLECTION

By Noah Bock, Undergraduate Men's Group Co-Leader

In this penitential season of Lent, I've been thinking of the Parable of the Prodigal Son, found in Luke 15. It's a story we know well: the younger brother asks for his inheritance early, skips town, and squanders it, while the older stays to work for his father. Quickly finding himself in destitution, the younger brother returns to his father, hoping to be treated as a hired hand. Instead, the father welcomes him back with jubilation. The older brother hears about the party for his younger brother and becomes upset because he loyally worked for his father for years but never received any special recognition.

For me, that's never really been a satisfying ending. Does the older brother join his younger brother at the party? Does he go back to the fields out of spite? Or perhaps he complains to his mother?

In our undergraduate men's group this semester, we have talked about this story often. That semester-long discussion led into the undergraduate men's retreat from February 16-18.

We've talked about how it's sometimes useful to picture ourselves as either the older or younger brother in that story. It's easy to see where the younger brother failed: he squandered his father's inheritance. Do we, like the younger brother, believe that we can lose the Father's love? It's more challenging to see, but the older brother fails to understand the Father's love as well: he thinks he has to earn it. Do we, like the older brother, believe that our Father loves us because of what we do rather than who we are?

Our retreat was a collection of older brothers and prodigals, united by the fact that we all have something missing from our lives. Whether we believe we have squandered the Father's love or whether we believe we have to earn the Father's love, the reality is the same. We don't believe that we have it.

But that retreat changed something in each of us. It was, in a unique way, our own ending to the Parable of the Prodigal Son.

That weekend, we sons of the Father — both older brothers and prodigals — gathered together to bask in the Father's love for us. Not only did we argue about sports, go fishing, and play football in the snow, but in small groups, we shared intimately the way the Father has worked in our lives. We prayed with each other and before the Blessed Sacrament. We heard moving talks from two Jesuits and one of our own undergrads on becoming a Man for Others. And I was particularly moved when we, 14 undergraduate men from the University of Michigan, spontaneously gathered around an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, singing a hymn to the Blessed Mother.

It was a banquet of celebration. It is what I imagine the end of that story to be: older brother and younger brother celebrating the Father's unconditional love for them.

For all of us, we get to choose how that story ends, too. Whether we've always "followed the rules" or are just returning home, let's remember as we repent this Lent that God's love cannot be earned. It is freely given to each of us. And that is worth celebrating.

Thank you, parishioners, for continuing to support undergraduate retreats through the March Madness Campaign.

FRIDAY MARCH 29 | 7:00 PM

All are welcome to attend this bilingual Stations of the Cross at 7 p.m. on Good Friday, March 29. With collaboration from the Hispanic/Latino community and the Anti-Racism Working Group, this prayer event helps us to walk the way of the cross with Jesus, while reflecting on how injustice can be found in our own day.

Just as Jesus suffered for us, we can acknowledge that many people suffer unjustly, simply because of the color of their skin or their national origin. As a community, we can pray together and work toward ways to combat injustice in our social structures, institutions and in our hearts.

Jesus I Trust in You

You Are Invited to Celebrate. . .

Divine Mercy Sunday April 7, 2024, 2:30 p.m. St. Mary Cathedral 219 Seymour Ave. Lansing

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Homily, Divine Mercy Chaplet, Benediction, Prayers & Sacrament of Reconciliation.
Prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday by starting the novena on Good Friday.

Celebration of Divine Mercy was requested by Jesus through St. Faustina, who was canonized on April 30, 2000. Saint John Paul II designated the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Jesus said to St. Faustina: I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. (Divine Mercy in My Soul 699)

The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy. (132) Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (900)

There is a Great Need for Mercy Today – St. John Paul II

- The Feast of Divine Mercy is a celebration and summation of God's Merciful Love.
- "Divine Mercy is the Easter gift the Church receives from the risen Christ" – St. JPH, 2001
- Saint John Paul II loved & designated Divine Mercy Sunday as a universal feast day devotion.
- We invite you to benefit fully from Divine Mercy promises given to St. Faustina for everyone.
- Please tell your family and friends about this and urge them to return to practice their faith.
