ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." - Jn 12:23-24

5^º DOMINGO DE LA CUARESMA

El les respondió: "Ha llegado la hora de que el Hijo del hombre sea glorificado. Yo les aseguro que si el grano de trigo, sembrado en la tierra, no muere, queda infecundo; pero si muere, producirá mucho fruto". - Jn 12, 23-24

ALTERNATIVE SPRING BREAK REFLECTION

By Therese Campos, UM Sophomore

I had the opportunity to travel to the Mexican-American border through St. Mary's Alternative Spring Break trip at the end of last month, along with five other UM students and our chaperone. During the week-long trip I met children who are laughing despite all the danger they faced on their journeys, smiling and passionate volunteers that see the human dignity in the migrants they aid, priests that provide spiritual support on both sides of the border, and individuals who are seeking a better life in the United States.

I heard many stories first-hand of how people arrived at the border and the difficulties they face on their journey as no part of the process is made easy for the migrant.

After leaving their home, many traverse multiple countries on foot as well as via bus and train, while trying to avoid situations such as being kidnapped by cartel. Once migrants arrive at border cities, they face the decision of presenting themselves at the border as asylum-seekers or putting their name into a lottery/waiting-list via the CBP One phone app to receive an appointment to enter into the US.

Bridges are only open to those who already have access to the US, so those wanting to present themselves for asylum at the border must first cross the Rio Grande. Migrants will then be detained, processed, and released within the US as they wait for a court date to review their asylum-seeking cause. Those with the CBP One app try to find safe spaces in Mexico as their wait can last up to a year and a half. Once they receive an appointment, migrants can cross the border, apply for a work permit and begin their asylum-seeking process while they live in the US.

I would like to highlight the story of someone my own age whom I met when the group crossed into Reynosa for one day. This young nineteen-year-old woman was initially hesitant to tell me about her journey because it wasn't that bad when compared to other migrants' experiences.

She left Nicaragua with a group of people she knew but was not related to. The journey was tough, but there were no major setbacks until she reached Mexico City where the group was picked up by potential kidnappers. Taken to a run-down building, they had to strip as they were thoroughly patted down and every inch of their belongings were checked in order to rob them. She was able to make it out with a small sum of money due to it being hidden in her hair tie. She called them "potential" kidnappers because after four hours, her group was dropped off in the dark, outside of Mexico City.

Eventually, they were able to make it to Reynosa on a bus, where they were promptly picked up by what- to the best of her knowledge- was Mexican migration. She was separated from the group and held for a few days with her only nutrition being some lettuce, peanut butter, stale bread, and a cup of juice each day. Her $600 pesos were taken, although her phone and headphones were returned to her upon her release. She has now been waiting for her CBP One appointment for five months, helping in the Casa del Migrante shelter's kitchen to help pass the time.

Please keep her in your prayers, along with all the other people who have made and are making the journey, those that aid them on the way, and the souls that have been laid to rest. Thank you,

Therese Campos

THROUGH THE LENS OF RACISM

FRIDAY MARCH 29 | 7:00 PM

All are welcome to attend this bilingual Stations of the Cross at 7 p.m. on Good Friday, March 29. With collaboration from the Hispanic/Latino community and the Anti-Racism Working Group, this prayer event helps us to walk the way of the cross with Jesus, while reflecting on how injustice can be found in our own day.

Just as Jesus suffered for us, we can acknowledge that many people suffer unjustly, simply because of the color of their skin or their national origin. As a community, we can pray together and work toward ways to combat injustice in our social structures, institutions and in our hearts.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

We have Eucharistic Adoration on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday 5:45-9 pm (Rosary for Life from 6:00 -6:20 pm, Praise & Worship from 8:00-9:00 pm), and Thursday (3:30-4:30 pm) Here is the link for our Wednesday night adoration signup: t.ly/bCXbA

You Are Invited to Celebrate. . .

Divine Mercy Sunday April 7, 2024, 2:30 p.m. St. Mary Cathedral 219 Seymour Ave. Lansing

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Homily, Divine Mercy Chaplet, Benediction, Prayers & Sacrament of Reconciliation.
Prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday by starting the novena on Good Friday.

Celebration of Divine Mercy was requested by Jesus through St. Faustina, who was canonized on April 30, 2000. Saint John Paul II designated the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Jesus said to St. Faustina: I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. (Divine Mercy in My Soul #99)

The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy. (13) Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (100)

There is a Great Need for Mercy Today – St. John Paul II

- The Feast of Divine Mercy is a celebration and summation of God's Merciful Love.
- "Divine Mercy is the Easter gift the Church receives from the risen Christ" – St. JP II, 2001
- Saint John Paul II loved & designated Divine Mercy Sunday as a universal feast day devotion.
- We invite you to benefit fully from Divine Mercy promises given to St. Faustina for everyone.
- Please tell your family and friends about this and urge them to return to practice their faith.
