ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things.” - Lk 24:44, 48

3<sup>er</sup> DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Después les dijo: “Lo que ha sucedido es aquello de que les hablaba yo, cuando aún estaba con ustedes: que tenía que cumplirse todo lo que estaba escrito de mí en la ley de Moisés, en los profetas y en los salmos ... Ustedes son testigos de esto”. - Lc 24, 44. 48

SERVING GOD AND OTHERS THROUGH PRAYER

Reach out to God

It's tempting to underestimate the power of prayer. We tend to think that we only serve others by "doing"—after all, actions are tangible, and most often, so are their effects. But as St. James reminds us, we can also be effective servants through our interior life of prayer:

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. (James 5:13-16)

Thomas Merton described the interdependence of action and prayer in terms of the intermingling of a spring and a stream. "Unless the waters of the spring are living and flow outward," he wrote, "the spring becomes only a stagnant pool. And if the stream loses contact with the spring which is its source, it dries up" ("No Man Is an Island").

In Merton's beautiful image, prayer is the spring of living water, and action is the stream that flows out from it to others; for both are borne of the same water. However, if action is out of touch with an interior source of prayer, it eventually becomes arid and barren; and prayer that does not overflow into action is cut off from life. This is the integrity of prayer and action.

Author Emilie Griffin wrote that prayer "is not to be taken on with a mentality of success." "The goal in prayer," she explained, "is to give oneself away" (Clinging: the Experience of Prayer). We give ourselves away in prayer by offering our time, our full attention, and a song of praise to God in the silence of our hearts. As we serve God and others through our prayer, the fruit and integrity of our actions will bring great help and healing to others.

Relationship above Results. "Pray in the Spirit at all times, in every prayer and supplication" (Ephesians 6:18).

In our parish's women's group, there is a "go-to gal," Janet. She is a true warrior for any and every prayer need that is on the hearts of those in our parish. While many people participate in the prayer chain, Janet is one of the few able to devote not just a few minutes but many hours to prayer for others, and she usually does just that.

It seems that anyone who calls or drops by finds that Janet was "just offering up a little prayer." Sometimes it is as simple as a prayer for her niece to pass a spelling test, while another day it could be as dire as the need for a miracle to stop a growing tumor. Each prayer gets the same amount of "praying time" from Janet. Her trust in the Lord's provision seems to grow stronger with every intercessory prayer she offers, whether the prayers are answered or not. While others get discouraged by "unanswered" prayers, Janet seems all the more determined in her prayer life—thus the label of "warrior," which truly fits this dedicated woman of faith.

Seen as a prayer "veteran" by the younger women in our church, Janet was asked to share the secret of her prayer life with others over tea. Clearly uncomfortable with "all the fuss," Janet confessed that her most effective times of prayer were the ones when she said virtually nothing at all. "Sometimes I just bring people to the altar and leave them there," she explained. "I have no idea what to say, but I know that God knows what to do with them. I carry them there with my prayers, but God does all the work!"

Janet has no secret formula or special hotline to God, just an incredibly simple faith that focuses more on her relationship with Christ than on the results of her prayers. For every prayer request, she simply empties her heart before Christ and trusts in his loving response to the needs she presents. In this way, we can all be prayer warriors. We can be women of tenacious trust with rich prayer lives if we will surrender to God's goodness and leave the results to him.

"Lord, deepen my faith and relationship with you through my prayer life."

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"One cannot know the Lord without this habit of adoring, of adoring in silence. I believe, if I am not mistaken, this prayer of adoration is the prayer least known by us, it is the one we do the least", as if it were a "waste of time before the Lord, before the mystery of Jesus Christ".

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis

We have Eucharistic Adoration on Monday (10-11 am), Tuesday (4-5 pm), Wednesday 5:45-9 pm (Rosary for Life from 6:00-6:20 pm, Praise & Worship from 8:00-9:00 pm), and Thursday (3:30-4:30 pm) Here is the link for our Wednesday night adoration signup: t.ly/bCXbA

HAITI EMPOWERMENT MEETING

SUNDAY , MAY 19 AT 11:00 AM

In 2010, Haiti sustained a devastating 7.0 earthquake that resulted in the death of an estimated 300,000 people.

That year an International Samaritan group traveled to Haiti to listen, learn, and serve the community of Port au Prince. Parishioner Mary Wakefield, a member of that group, was deeply impacted by the experience, especially her time at Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center. This cultural and community center empowers youth through classes, job skills, and educational opportunities.

Join Mary Wakefield and founder of the Center, Susan Frame, on Sunday, May 19 from 11am-12pm in Donnelly Hall for a presentation to learn more about the work of Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center and how life out of destruction is happening, and how we can be part of this brighter future.

JESUIT FRIENDS AND ALUMNI NETWORK OF DETROIT LUNCHEON

Join Jesuit friends and alumni for a spring luncheon on Wednesday, May 15 at University of Detroit Mercy.

Tom Szczepanski will speak on Finding God in All things (...sometimes through the eyes of others). Come and connect with friends in the Detroit Jesuit family and enjoy a great lunch at UDM. Tom (UDM '74), a lifelong Detroiter who has served in corporate and non-profit leadership, shares the gift of spirituality and awareness of God acting in our lives. Born in a small house on the east-side of Detroit and educated at the University of Detroit Mercy, Tom has gone on to have what he describes as a Forest Gump-like life – meeting interesting people and living a life of surprising experiences. And yet, it wasn't until he started working at Angels' Place, with adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, that he started to find God in those things. Sometimes it takes the eyes of others to open your own. Tom will share the gift of spirituality he's found in working for and with the members of the twenty-one Angels' Place homes in Southeast Michigan, and the powerful awareness of God acting in our lives.

Register soon! – or find more information – at jfanusa.org/detroit
