THE STORY BEHIND OUR NEW CRUCIFIX ... AND THE MAN WHO CARVED IT

By Sonia Zawacki, member of the Church Enhancement Committee

One of the first tasks given to St. Mary's Church Enhancement Committee (formed in February 2021 by Fr. Jim Gartland) was to find a crucifix for the church. During our search, we found Mike Kapetan, a local sculptor, teacher (we call him a walking art history encyclopedia!), world traveler, and pursuer of knowledge and beauty. His quest for knowledge encompasses the sciences, artistic creation, and the search for divine grace, which permeates all he does. His love for carving wood has spanned his entire lifetime, beginning at a young age when his parents presented him with a set of Japanese wood carving tools. He has created liturgical pieces for over 70 places of worship, including Catholic, Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations, a Jewish synagogue, and a Buddhist temple. This is his fifth life-sized, carved crucifix. Mike comes at his work from a historical perspective with an ecumenical approach and says that working with these diverse faith groups has only amplified his sense of ecumenism. He is in awe of the faith that drives people to bring art into their place of worship, a phenomenon he believes has been going on since time immemorial!

Mike's inspiration for the creation of our crucifix is multi-faceted. The design for the cross was inspired by early Byzantine art; it is called a "story cross" and for this he chose black walnut. It includes side panels of lattice work made from purpleheart wood, upon which has been carved the Jerusalem cross motif (found in the St. Mary logo). Accents on the crucifix, such as the 'INRI' at the top of the cross, and the individual thorns on Jesus' crown are made of red oak. The corpus has been carved out of butternut wood, about which Mike says, "it's such a beautiful wood to carve, and is considered the average color of all the races of humanity." The butternut will provide a beautiful contrast to the black walnut of the cross. Mike's inspiration for the corpus was drawn from the art of El Greco. For the face of Jesus, he turned to Rembrandt, who's own inspiration for painting portraits of Jesus came from the young Jewish men living in his neighborhood. Mike has given special attention to incorporate multi-ethnic features in Jesus's face, reflecting St. Mary's intercultural identity. Lastly, the halo was created from wound copper wire which has been covered in gold leaf.

The enduring, mystical nature of trees, their symbiotic relationship to humankind, and the vital role of wood in worship of the Divine have inspired people for centuries, and have fascinated Mike throughout his career. As the artist and sculptor of our crucifix, his central message embodies the Christian ethos, "As you do unto the least among you, you do unto me." Mike's hope is that all who gaze upon it feel welcomed and loved by God, and come to appreciate that there truly is no greater love than to lay down one's life for a friend.

To learn more about Mike Kapetan and his life's work, visit: www.michaelkapetansculptor.com/

The current estimate for when the crucifix will be installed is May 20-21 .

Thinking of becoming Catholic? We'd love to talk

This is the time of year when many people are making decisions about various paths in life, and often, they contact us about exploring the Catholic faith.

We welcome seekers and inquirers at any stage, and are happy to talk with you about the OCIA journey. OCIA (formerly known as RCIA), stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. It's the process the Church has created to help new members join the Catholic faith.

Here at St. Mary, our OCIA sessions help people who may be thinking about becoming Catholic, as well as adult Catholics who have never completed Confirmation. Formal sessions begin in September, but it's a good time to discuss your journey as a faith seeker and see if we can help you discern where God might be leading you.

Since we're a student parish, we have many students and young adults who prepare throughout the year. Our sessions are from 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays (following the U-M and holiday schedule). Inquirers will be initiated into the faith at Easter, if they feel ready.

Wondering about the name change?

Most people are familiar with the program's former name, RCIA. After the Vatican II sessions in the late 1960s, the Catholic Church restored the ancient catechumenate form of education for new members. The process was outlined in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

The RCIA book is now being re-translated from the original Latin. This is part of an effort started by Pope John Paul II in 2001 and continued by Pope Francis in 2017. Going over each of the books for the Church's various rites, the Bishops' Conferences around the world (including the U.S. Bishops) have been updating their translations.

The RCIA book is one of the last to be updated, but the U.S. bishops decided in 2021 that the word "order" is more appropriate in the name, in part because the Latin name was Ordo Initiationis Christianae Adulorum. In the new translation, the word ordo became order.

The new word is also more comprehensive, emphasizing a continuous process of spiritual formation for those who want to join the Church. The individual rites are still in place, but the name conveys that the preparation process is a journey toward discipleship with Christ, not just a series of checkpoints to complete.

Despite the new name, our parish remains committed to providing a welcoming, prayerful space for learning and growing in the faith. For more information, visit our website and click on the registration form. michigancatholics.org/to-become-catholic/

You can also contact OCIA Coordinator Rita Zyber at rzyber@smspnewman.org

Also note: If you are a Catholic who has been away for a while and you'd like to talk about returning to a more active faith life, please feel free to speak with one of our priests. Sometimes a good conversation can make a difference. Their email info is listed each week in the bulletin.

HAITI EMPOWERMENT MEETING

SUNDAY , MAY 19 AT 11:00 AM

In 2010, Haiti sustained a devastating 7.0 earthquake that resulted in the death of an estimated 300,000 people. From this devastation, Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center was born. This Center serves as a cultural and community center that empowers youth through classes, job skills, and educational opportunities in Haiti.

Join the Center's founder, Susan Frame, and St. Mary parishioner, Mary Wakefield, on Sunday, May 19 from 11am-12pm in Donnelly Hall for a presentation to learn more about the work of Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center, how life out of destruction is happening, and how we can be part of this brighter future.

Thank You from Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County!

As the new President and CEO of Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County, I would like to personally thank you for everything you do to support and enliven our ministry, as well as sharing a bit about myself and my hopes for our shared work.

I have served our Church in a variety of roles; most recently, I served as the Chief Services and Strategy Officer for St. Vincent de Paul-Cincinnati. It has been my life's work to walk alongside those experiencing poverty and systemic barriers and to support and encourage others who share in this work as they grow in their faith through service.

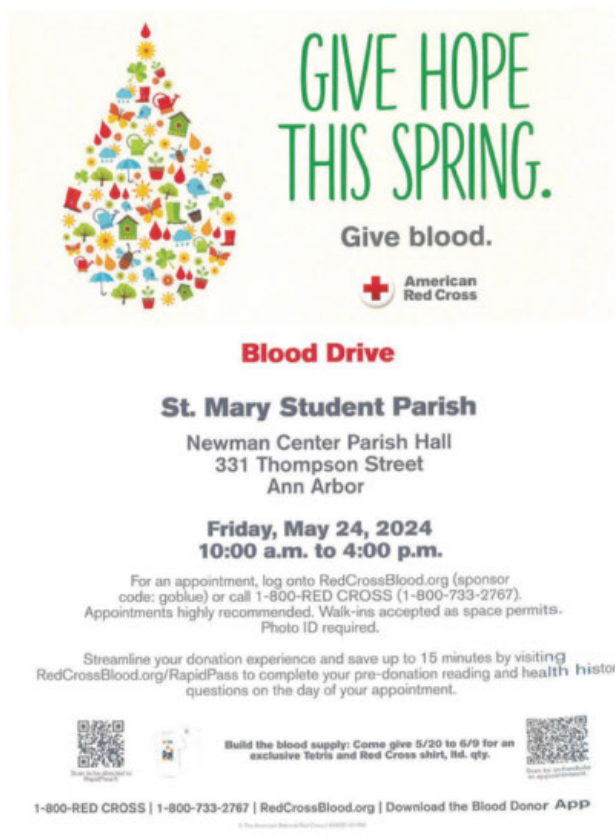

I am so grateful for all that the Catholic community here in Washtenaw County does to support our mission to share the love and presence of Christ in our community through acts of compassion and mercy in a manner that respects the inherent dignity of every person. Your contributions, whether they take the form of donations of needed items for our Foster Care, Adoption, or Food Assistance programs, financial gifts, the gift of your time as a volunteer, or the gift of your prayers, are essential to our mission. Thank you!

I look forward to meeting you and learning about how we can help you to grow in your faith as we work together to serve our brothers and sisters in need with Christ's love. It is my goal that every Catholic in this community will see the work of CSSW as a shared ministry of our Church, and one that we are all part of.

Please be in touch! My email address is slain@csswashtenaw.org; my direct line is 734-971-9781. I look forward to serving with you!

May God continue to bless you;

 Reading II Eph 1:17-23 or 4:1-13 or 4:1-7, 11-13
 Gospel Mk 16:15-20

Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in his name, reminding them that he is always present through his Spirit. Having ascended to his Father amid cries of gladness, we are to be his witnesses for we have been gifted with his Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Let us, therefore, live in a manner worthy of the call we have received.

MAY 19 – Pentecost

Reading I Acts 2:1-11
 Psalm Ps 47:2-3, 6-9 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
 Reading II 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13
 Gospel Jn 20:19-23

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit; let us live, then, by the Spirit! That same Spirit, the Advocate, who “renews the face of the earth,” was given as gift to the disciples to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, and to obtain forgiveness of sins.
