June 23, 2024 — Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.”- Mk 4:30-32b

11º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“¿Con qué compararemos el Reino de Dios? ¿Con qué parábola lo podremos representar? Es como una semilla de mostaza que, cuando se siembra, es la más pequeña de las semillas; pero una vez sembrada, crece y se convierte en el mayor de los arbustos”. - Mc 4, 30-32

THOUGHTS ON THE CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

By Cynthia George, Resident Parishioner

I participated in the Eucharistic Procession this evening, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, from St. Mary Student Parish through the Diag and Engine Arch, by the UM President's House and Angell Hall back down William to Liberty Square and through Kerrytown, past Zingermans and up Kingsley to St. Thomas for a final time of adoration.

I was touched by the people in the procession, including wheelchairs and folks on crutches and all singing and praising God as we stopped 6 times along the way to pray with the monstrance on a table set up at each place, all kneeling, those that could, and praying together.

Since I am a UM Alumna, my mind jumped a few times, along the procession, to some of my past experiences over the years in Ann Arbor. As we stepped over the center of the Diag I recalled the early 1970's when the Hare Krishna group attracted attention by singing their mantras and Anti-Vietnam protests grew and student takeovers of buildings occurred. Then I recalled the more recent student encampment on the Diag protesting the Hamas/Israel conflict. This evening when we passed by the President's House, I was reminded of the numerous times that UM President Robben Fleming (1968-1979) was in the hot seat during his tenure and the many protesters that camped out then on South University. The sidewalk in front of Angell Hall on State St was our next stop. I prayed for the redemption of so many of my past memories at each stop and the blessings of all who wander on campus today.

And as we stopped at Liberty Square for a time of Adoration, I recalled so many times when I had driven by there when protesters were voicing their opinions both religious and political. Then we headed for Kerrytown, where several onlookers and families were enjoying ice cream cones, for our last period of adoration on the streets of Ann Arbor.

Yes, Ann Arbor streets and UM Campus walkways have been a microcosm of our dear country America. And this typical summer evening, we walked with Jesus along our path, our Way, our short pilgrimage, following the Holy of Holies. There were onlookers and a few honks; some taking pictures and I wonder what stirred in the hearts and minds of those that we passed. I hope they were touched by the Presence of the Holy Spirit as we all processed by them.

It was a very quiet and peaceful night on the summertime streets of Ann Arbor. And we were gifted with a pleasant Sunday evening for an outing of prayer with the Lord of Lords, the Lamb of God and some of his friends who said yes to the opportunity to spend time together with him .

Then arrived at St. Thomas, our final destination, for our final time of adoration and benediction. There were refreshments waiting outside; fluids, salty snacks and oranges!!! So, we travelers were fed spiritually and physically along this way with Christ.

And at the end of our journey, we were able to meet others from surrounding Parishes and some out of towners, as well. I met parish members of St. Mary, Pinkney and many of the Knights of Columbus, who were the traffic guards along our route and who kept running ahead to the next crossing. They also held back tree branches numerous times, so that the processional canopy could be moved forward without difficulty. Their attentiveness at the crossings and safety jackets kept us out of harm's way. One of the Knights had his two young daughters, who were also very attentive during the procession, with him.

And God bless all of the priests, deacons and acolytes who were wearing their processional garb during at least an hour-plus walk during the summer warmth!

Another logistical item that made our procession praise worthy was the sound system that included speakers being carried along and a microphone used by Fr. Kyle, to start us off in song from a valuable sheet of lyrics perfect for our adoration.

I, of course, did not see everyone who was there, but recognized many familiar faces from our Catholic Parishes in Ann Arbor.

Blessings to all who were able to participate! Perhaps we will gather next year!

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever." John 6:51

Parent and Baby Play Group

Bring your child, yourself, and any toys or books that your child likes to play with and we can gather and visit with each other while our children have some unstructured play time.

Both moms and dads are welcome!

Let's build our village!

This is not a substitute for child care so please be present with your child for the duration of the play group.

Diocesan Service Appeal (DSA)

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal!

As of June 10, we reached out 72.66% of our goal. If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Your donation will help to fill food pantries, provide mental health and substance abuse treatment, and support restorative justice and prison ministry for our sisters and brothers throughout the Diocese. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

Any size gift, no matter how big or small, makes a difference!

SUNDAY PARKING— OPERATIONAL CHANGE

Beginning June 2024, City public parking facilities will make an operational change to lower structure and lot gate arms on Sundays. Parking will still be free on Sundays, but the gates will be down, and parking patrons will need to pull a ticket to enter the facility. When exiting, parking patrons will simply insert their parking ticket into the in-lane exit equipment and the gate will go up.

Parkers who lose their ticket can use the same procedure as during the week, push the call button on the in-lane equipment and speak with PCI staff for assistance. Lost ticket charges will be waived for the first 4 months. However, beginning in October 2024 lost tickets will be charged for 24 hours of parking, as is standard during the week.

This change is being made to align the system with best practices in parking. An operation where gates stay down provides internal and revenue controls, as well as operational efficiencies related to space counts and permit parkers. This will also help to track of Sunday utilization.

Sunday Readings

JUNE 16 – Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Ez 17:22-24
Psalm Ps 92:2-3, 13-16
Reading II 2 Cor 5:6-10
Gospel Mk 4:26-34

The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed, which springs up and becomes the largest of plants, like a tender shoot from the cedar which will bear fruit and become a majestic cedar. So shall the just one flourish, like a cedar. As we walk by faith and not by sight, may our lives bear fruit in abundance.

JUNE 23 – Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Jb 38:1, 8-11
Psalm Ps 107:23-26, 28-31
Reading II 2 Cor 5:14-17
Gospel Mk 4:35-41

In the midst of adversity, we need to trust in the saving presence of God, who triumphs over the waters of the sea. In the midst of distress, let us turn to the Lord with faith, to whom even the wind and sea obey. He died and rose for our sake, that we might live and not perish.

JUNE 30 – Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Wis 1:13-15, 2:23-24
Psalm Ps 30:2, 4-6, 11-13

Gospel Mk 5:21-43

Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome by the Resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made himself poor so that we might become rich.
