ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.” - Mk 5:36bc,

13^o DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Le dijo al jefe de la sinagoga: “No temas. Basta que tengas fe”.

Al llegar a la casa del jefe de la sinagoga, vio Jesús el alboroto de la gente y oyó los llantos y los alaridos que daban. Entró y les dijo: “¿Qué significa tanto llanto y alboroto? La niña no está muerta, está dormida”. - Mc 5, 36. 38-39

FINDING GOD THROUGH CREATIVE EXPRESSION

By Bailey Burke, Campus Missionary Disciple

As the fullness of summer really sinks in, I find myself so much more inspired to create. Gone are the dreary days of winter; now, an abundance of life bursts forth outside my window: the shush of tree leaves dancing in the wind, the rich orange and pink blossoms decorating porches and gardens, the steady hums & chirps of bugs & birds. All of creation, in their own little ways, sings God's praises. Perhaps that is why it is easier for me to be motivated to put pen to paper; the world itself is poetry, most especially alive and buzzing in these summer months.

Last autumn I created a Christian literary magazine here at St Mary (in collaboration with the Kateri Institute for Catholic Studies on campus) called Transcendence. It's a wee book of artwork, poetry, short stories, and other creative expressions of truth, beauty, and goodness. You can find a pdf of our print edition online and find additional works here (bburke431.wixsite.com/transcendence/single-project).

I created it as a way to combine my faith with my love of writing; I had hope that others would share in my desire to "find God in all things," using our creative gifts. We had a wonderful launch party at the end of April, and it was beautiful to see our community come together to celebrate creativity and the arts. I think the arts are one of the ways we live out the fullness of our own humanity; we were created out of love with an invitation to co-create with the Lord.

So that is my invitation to you this summer: create. Dig out an old camera and take some photos of friends and family enjoying each other's company. Bring your watercolor set to the beach and paint the sunset. Write a poem about the pesky fruit flies that find their way into your kitchen every summer. Whatever it is, let the creative juices flow and find God in the midst of it. (And who knows? Perhaps you'll create something you can submit to our next edition of Transcendence; our submission window will open again in early August.)

I hope that, by spending a little bit of time creating or capturing something beautiful this summer, you are reminded that, in every creative action, "you are invited to use your creative intuition to enter into the heart of the mystery of the Incarnate God and at the same time into the mystery of man" (St John Paul II, 1999 Letter to Artists). May all your works be for the Glory of God!

St. Mary Student Parish

Thank you to planning study participants!

Over the past eight weeks, St. Mary Student Parish conducted a thorough campaign planning study to gauge support for a series of potential projects related to our church and Newman Center campus as well as our parish wide ministries. The potential effort would be conducted as part of the Diocese of Lansing's Stewardship for Saints and Scholars campaign.

Thank you to the nearly 500 members of our parish community who shared their feedback through an interview or survey! We are so grateful for your input, which will assist St. Mary leaders in its decision-making regarding a potential major fundraising effort. In the coming weeks, we will share the results of the study, including findings and recommendations provided by our fundraising and development consulting firm, the Steier Group.

In the meantime, we ask for your prayers for guidance as parish leaders discern the best path forward.

A THANK YOU NOTE FROM UGANDA

On behalf of the Diocese I wish to heartily thank you for the enormous financial support you have given to Fort Portal Diocese through Miss Naomi Corera of Children Waiting Everywhere (CWE) the recent one being the construction of an operating theatre at Kyakatarata Health Center. Once this theatre is completed and equipped it will allow doctors for the first time in the history of this health center to carry out medical operations especially on expectant mothers. Be pleased to know that the financial support you give us is changing the lives of so many people, especially children and other vulnerable groups.

The provision of clean water to diocesan schools through the installation of water tanks is not only improving the health and hygiene of pupils but also driving the transformation of these schools in terms of infrastructure, learning and teaching. Without your support it would have been extremely difficult to see the transformation that we are witnessing today.

Kindly note that Fort Portal Diocese receives 100% of all the funds sent which are in turn fully used for the implementation of the designated projects.

May the Almighty God bless your generosity.

I thank you sincerely and pray that this relationship continues as we labor together in the Lord's vineyard.

Fr. Tadius Musabe

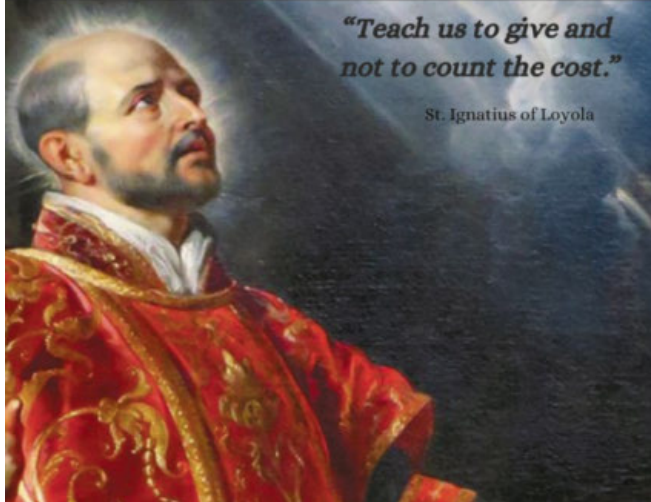

Treasurer General Fort Portal Diocese , Uganda

 Psalm Ps 85:9-14
 Reading II Eph 1:3-14
 Gospel Mk 6:7-13

Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome by the Resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made himself poor so that we might become rich.

Jesus is met with misgivings and rejection by his own relatives. Like them, we often resist the prophetic word because of an obstinacy of heart, rooted in a self-pride, which must give way to weakness and powerlessness.

The prophet hears what God proclaims and is called to speak in God's name. The Twelve hear the message of Jesus and are sent forth to preach the good news. In him have we been chosen to be full of love.
