ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.” - Mk 9:35b-37a

25° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

“Si alguno quiere ser el primero, que sea el último de todos y el servidor de todos”.

Después, tomando a un niño, lo puso en medio de ellos, lo abrazó y les dijo: “El que reciba en mi nombre a uno de estos niños, a mí me recibe”. - Mc 9, 35-37

Parish Insight

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

By Rosa Luz Postigo, Hispanic Ministry Coordinator

The first time I participated in the mass and celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe at St. Mary Student Parish, I was amazed by the devotion, organization, traditions, culture, and love for the Virgin of Tepeyac. While I am not Mexican, but Peruvian by birth, I was very moved by the songs, the theatrical representation of the apparition of the Virgin to Saint Juan Diego, the Aztec dance, the traditional attire of the parishioners, and the love displayed in the most important celebration of our Hispanic community. Then, I participated in the joy of the party, the mariachi, and the delicious food from Mexico and other Latin American countries.

Over the years, this party has improved and has become an event that welcomes parishioners of different cultures and origins: Salvadorans prepare pupusas and we have tamales from Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua. There is a parade of flags from all the countries of the Americas and the Church and the hall are decorated. It reminds us that our Mother is a mother who shelters and embraces us all, all, all, as Pope Francis says. During this time, I have gotten to know and learn about many customs and I was nourished by rich traditions such as the Day of the Dead; the Christmas Posadas; the Pastorela Nativity play with its colors, jokes, and piñatas; the Three Wise Men and the delicious Rosca de Reyes, an exquisite cake that hides the "Baby Jesus" (a plastic doll in the shape of a baby), which when cut bring "luck" to whoever finds it. Then, comes the Candelaria or Candlemass and the tamales offered by those who found the "Baby Jesus" on the day of the Three Wise Men.

And so the Hispanic parishioners celebrate everything, whether religious holidays or birthdays, blessings, baptisms or weddings, there is always a good reason to get together and celebrate.

These celebrations not only bring the family together, they strengthen ties with those who share the same language, the same faith, and the same family values, the same joy and happiness of sharing whatever there is to eat, from the simplest to the most elaborate and sophisticated meals.

With Hispanic Heritage Month, we have yet another reason to share our traditions, learn from each other, and teach others about the richness of our cultures.

Hispanic Heritage Month began as a week-long celebration established by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968. It expanded to a month-long celebration in 1998 under President Ronald Reagan. September 15 is the day that Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua celebrate their independence from Spain. Additionally, between September 15 and October 15, Mexico, Chile, and Brazil also celebrate their independence. The idea was that Hispanic Heritage Month would be a period of great importance for many of the Latino immigrants living in the United States and their descendants.

This year at St. Mary, we want to celebrate and share with all members of the parish our Hispanic Heritage and we are organizing a Latin Fiesta for September 20; We will have an international fair of Spanish-speaking countries, with a display of our typical dishes, popular sights to visit, handcrafts, as well as songs and dances that liven up our festivities. It will be a perfect occasion to teach some dance steps to those who wish to learn them and have a great and fun time.

We hope that you will participate in this event that will allow our Hispanic community to share our culture with our entire parish family. Everyone is welcome!

SMALL CHURCH

Communities

Looking for a small group to help meet people in the parish?
Looking for a way to dive deeper into the meaning of the Sunday readings?

Our Small Church Communities can help with that! SCC groups will begin meeting at the end of September. They run for seven weeks and meet each week to look at the readings for the upcoming Sunday. There are several groups to help fit your schedule. We also have a Spanish speaking group, and a couple of special topic groups. Small groups are one of the best ways to share our experiences of God, and to grow deeper in our faith.

CELEBRATION OF THE VIRGIN OF COROMOTO

On September 11, the festivity of the Virgin of Coromoto, Patroness of Venezuela, was celebrated in Venezuela.

At St. Mary Student Parish, we are organizing some activities to honor her and pray for Venezuela. Last Sunday we had a bilingual Holy Rosary for the intentions of Venezuela.

Next Sunday, September 22, after the 2 pm mass we will have gathering where we will talk about the story of the Virgin's apparition and her message. The celebration will take place in Newman Hall

If you would like to collaborate by bringing a dish to share, please contact me via private message. Please extend this invitation to other Venezuelans to come with their family and friends. Everyone is welcome!

THE MEASURE OF MYSTERY: THREE CONTEMPORARY CATHOLIC POETS

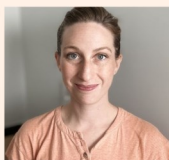

AN EVENING WITH JAMES MATTHEW WILSON,
KATIE HARTSOCK, AND J.C. SCHARL

If it is true, as British poet Sally Read suggests, that "poetry is the language of Catholicism," then it would follow that Catholicism cannot be understood without poetry. Further, neither God nor Man can be adequately comprehended without the penetrating light of poetry. But how can this be? What does it mean? And what do contemporary Catholic poets think about - and contribute through - their written work?

Join us for an evening with three of today's finest Catholic poets, each of whom speak on how they understand their work in our time and in the longer historical context of poetry in Christian tradition.

Followed by a reception. Books will be sold and signed at the event.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 22 – Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Wis 2:12, 17-20
Psalm Ps 54:3-4, 5, 6-8
Reading II Jas 3:16-4:3
Gospel Mk 9:30-37

Jesus speaks of his own rejection, torture, and shameful death. True discipleship, he says, is concerned not with status but with service to the poor, with justice and peace.

SEPTEMBER 29 – Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Nm 11:25-29
Psalm Ps 19:8, 10, 12-14
Reading II Jas 5:1-6
Gospel Mk 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution, and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom. Beware of growing rich while neglecting the rights and needs of others.
