ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us.” Jesus replied, “Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me.” - Mk 9:38-39

---

26° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En aquel tiempo, Juan le dijo a Jesús: “Hemos visto a uno que expulsaba a los demonios en tu nombre, y como no es de los nuestros, se lo prohibimos”. Pero Jesús le respondió: “No se lo prohíban, porque no hay ninguno que haga milagros en mi nombre, que luego sea capaz de hablar mal de mí”. - Mc 9, 38-39

Parish Insight

MY WHY

BY THERESE CAMPOS, MICHIGAN CATHOLICS PRESIDENT

Why are you here?

I've been asked this question multiple times throughout my college experience. Professors like to ask this question rhetorically when explaining the importance of their class to my college curriculum, my friends ask me this when we run into each other unexpectedly, and it is a question that is constantly in the back of my head as I carry out my intern role as the Michigan Catholics president.

When I first arrived at St. Mary's Student Parish my freshman year, I didn't feel like I fit in. I met some great people, but it felt like everyone else was already so involved and knew each other so well that I couldn't incorporate myself into their groups. My mentality prevented me from growing closer to the other students despite attending Michigan Catholics events and becoming a Latino Sacramental Prep catechist. It wasn't until the second semester that things changed.

I carpooled to the March for Life in Washington DC with a group of strangers. Yes, I had seen them around St. Mary's, but I had never had a long conversation with any of them. This all changed once we traveled eight hours in a car together, the ice was broken.

Upon returning to Ann Arbor, I felt more connected. I recognized people at Michigan Catholics events and they recognized me! This led me to meeting new people and fostering new Catholic friendships throughout my second semester. During this time, a new Hispanic/Latino student group (now known as Cristeros) was formed. Our weekly meetings fostered a beautiful small group community as we grew in faith together.

My freshman year experience is the first level of my "why" in regards to being involved with Michigan Catholics. I hope that through my involvement I can help connect people with each other so they can immediately feel at home within the St. Mary's community. It is so much easier to maintain your faith and build a good relationship with God when you are surrounded by Christ-like friends. I pray that as the Michigan Catholics community continues to grow we can spread the light of Christ around campus.

My bigger "why" comes back to Jesus the Good Shepherd. The parables were a big part of my faith formation when I was younger, so I grew up learning that Jesus loves each and every one of us so much that he would leave the 99 sheep to find the one that is lost. He is a shepherd that knows us by name and would not hesitate in giving up his life to save ours. This is why I am here at St. Mary's Student Parish, because everyone should know the love Jesus has for them.

 SMALL CHURCH Communities

*Looking for a small group to help meet people in the parish?
Looking for a way to dive deeper into the meaning of the Sunday readings?*

Our Small Church Communities can help with that! SCC groups will begin meeting at the end of September. They run for seven weeks and meet each week to look at the readings for the upcoming Sunday. There are several groups to help fit your schedule. We also have a Spanish speaking group, and a couple of special topic groups. Small groups are one of the best ways to share our experiences of God, and to grow deeper in our faith.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

All Women of the Parish are Warmly Invited

This year's Women of the Heart theme will reflect on the gift of WISDOM. Recognizing that the Book of Wisdom ascribes the feminine pronoun to wisdom and acknowledging the vast and diverse wisdom that exists among the Women of the Heart members we decided on this theme. The structure and format of the meetings will vary from month to month with some presentations coming from parish staff and others from group members either individually or as a group panel.

Women of the Heart will meet on the second Thursday of the month from September through May from 10:15 am to 12:00 noon in Donnelly Hall. Listed below are our meeting dates, you are invited to attend on Thursday the monthly gatherings your schedules allow: October 10, November 14, December, January 9, February 13, March 13, April 10, May 8

Should you have any questions or would like to be added to our email list, let us know. We are looking forward to another year of sharing and reflecting on our faith together as Women of the Heart.

On Tue. Oct. 8th we'll meet in the Rectory Lounge to continue our discussion of "The 272: The Families Who Were Enslaved and Sold to Build the American Catholic Church" by Rachel L. Swarns. Called by the New York Times one of the most notable nonfiction books of 2023, "The 272" recounts the involvement of the Maryland Jesuits in the slave trade. It examines the consequences of the 1838 sale of the enslaved to fund the mission that became Georgetown University. Later chapters focus on the Jesuits' efforts since 2016 to apologize and make amends to the descendants and to provide reparations.

All are welcome to join our discussion. For more information, contact David Kieras at kieras@umich.edu.

Sunday Readings

SEPTEMBER 29 – Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Nm 11:25-29
 Psalm Ps 19:8, 10, 12-14
 Reading II Jas 5:1-6
 Gospel Mk 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution, and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom. Beware of growing rich while neglecting the rights and needs of others.

OCTOBER 6 – Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Gn 2:18-24
 Psalm Ps 128:1-6
 Reading II Heb 2:9-11
 Gospel Mk 10:2-16

Conjugal love, lived in fidelity to God's original plan, is to be one of the principal manifestations of the kingdom proclaimed by Jesus. Through baptism into Christ, we join with him in having one and the same Father.
