ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

27^o DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

El les respondió: "¿Qué les prescribió Moisés?" Ellos contestaron: "Moisés nos permitió el divorcio mediante la entrega de un acta de divorcio a la esposa". Jesús les dijo: "Moisés prescribió esto, debido a la dureza del corazón de ustedes. Pero desde el principio, al crearlos, Dios los hizo hombre y mujer". - Mc 10, 3-6

MY ENCOUNTER WITH MARY

BY RAFAEL CHAVEZ, PARISHIONER

My name is Rafael Chávez. I am originally from Arequipa, Peru, and I have been living in the United States for 21 years. I want to share with you my encounter with Mary. My father passed away 5 days before my sister was born, I was 2 years old. My mother never remarried because she didn't want to impose a stepfather on us due to her own bad experience with her stepmother. My mother is a nurse, and thanks to God, she was able to provide us with a private education. The bilingual school my sister and I attended was one of the most prestigious in Arequipa, founded by a British Evangelical organization. No need to say, they did not offer Catholic religious education; instead, we had daily openings where we read and meditated on the Bible. They never imposed Protestantism on the students. Curiously, more than 90% of my class received their First Communion. My mother, a devout Catholic, compensated the lack of catechesis by faithfully taking us to Sunday Mass every week, making it a non-negotiable obligation. That's how I understood that Mary was the woman chosen by God to be the mother of our Savior, and nothing more. I finished school with a close relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ, but not with Mary.

I have always admired my mother, not only because she was able to respond our needs but also because she tried to fill the absence of our father. When I left my country I realized the great and unconditional love our mothers have for us: Always having a warm meal ready, coming home and being able to hug and feel the warmth that only a mother can express. I understood and valued those years I spent close to my mother and knew how our Lord Jesus could find in Mary, His mother, the same pure and unconditional love that God gives us through them.

Years later, I married Gina, a wonderful woman, and when we had our first child, Sebastián, I immediately understood how strong the maternal bond is with their children. Two and a half years later, God blessed us with our second child, but when Gina was eight weeks pregnant, a lump appeared on her back. After months of inefficient therapy we went to the hospital and were told that it was probably a tumor located at the junction of the vertebrae and the rib cage.

In the following weeks, we discovered it was a cancerous tumor, a chondrosarcoma. We were referred to a specialist, an orthopedic surgeon. During the consultation, he never looked us in the eyes or explained the seriousness of the situation or the possible consequences of the surgery for Gina, including the potential loss of mobility in one of her legs. When he finished, I looked him in the eye and told him that if he hadn't noticed, Gina was already 18 weeks pregnant with our daughter. For the first time, the surgeon raised his eyes to look at us and said the tumor was too large to wait for surgery, and the baby wouldn't survive the surgery. Gina and I looked at each other, not knowing how to respond. Our entire world was collapsing in front of us. It was impossible for me to choose between Gina's life or our unborn daughter's. I asked Mary to give me the strength to respond, and I told the surgeon that we needed a second opinion.

Leaving the hospital, we went directly to the Adoration Chapel of our parish. I asked God to speak to us, to literally send someone to guide us in this moment of darkness and confusion. I prayed, saying, "Lord, I have never asked You to respond immediately, but now, send someone in Your name to tell us what to do."

As we were about to leave the chapel, we saw the parish deacon arrive. We immediately approached him and asked if he had a few minutes to listen to us: we told him what was happening and the terrible decision we were facing. After listening to us, he said, "Look around and contemplate the wonders that God our Lord has created. For God, nothing is impossible. You must choose to trust in Him or be paralyzed by fear. Hope for the good or expect the bad." At that moment, I knew it was God speaking to us, encouraging us with words of faith.

The day after, we told our oncologist that we would not terminate Gina's pregnancy, and we would wait until our baby was viable to be born. Our oncologist respected our decision and connected us with a neurosurgeon who respected our decision too and explained the risks of the surgery, but with a more humane approach.

You may wonder what Mary had to do with all of this, but it was through her that we found a way to grow closer to faith. Through her, we began praying the Holy Rosary daily, and it was she who helped us endure those nights of anguish and despair, leading us with her motherly love to the feet of Jesus.

After 38 weeks of pregnancy, Sofia was born, and one month later, Gina went into surgery with five medical teams to remove the tumor, which had grown considerably and surrounded major blood vessels. After 13 hours of waiting, the surgery was a success. They were able to remove the tumor, and reconstruct the affected area. Gina was able to leave the hospital walking.

During this entire time, the Blessed Virgin was with us on this dark journey, giving us strength through the Holy Rosary. We named our daughter Sofia Maria—Sofia means wisdom, the wisdom God gave us to say NO to abortion, and Maria in honor of the Mother of God, who brought us closer to Jesus.

We later consecrated our family to the Blessed Virgin, and God gave us the opportunity to visit the Sanctuary of Fatima in Portugal, where the Virgin appeared to Francisco, Jacinta, and Lucia, allowing me to become a Marian Catholic by conviction, experience, and choice.

COMBINED CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Next weekend, St. Mary Student Parish will be kicking off our Combined Capital Campaign. The campaign is a wonderful opportunity to invest in campus ministry, address deferred maintenance, enhance our church and upgrade our facilities as we approach our Centennial Celebration later this year. Fr. Kyle will soon be inviting each family to consider a suggested five-year pledge amount.

In preparation for our campaign kickoff, we want to answer some of the more frequently asked questions regarding this major fundraising effort. In today's bulletin, you'll find a special insert that addresses several key topics about the campaign. In the coming weeks and months, we'll continue to provide more information about the various projects aimed along with updates on the campaign's progress

If you have any questions, please reach out to Fr. Kyle, Fr. Dan, or our Business Manager, Cathy Welch, at (734) 663-0557 x224. You can also visit our website : michigancatholics.org/capital-campaign-about/

Student AND Resident Parishioners Are Welcome!

WOMEN OF THE HEART

All Women of the Parish are Warmly Invited

This year's Women of the Heart theme will reflect on the gift of WISDOM. Recognizing that the Book of Wisdom ascribes the feminine pronoun to wisdom and acknowledging the vast and diverse wisdom that exists among the Women of the Heart members we decided on this theme. The structure and format of the meetings will vary from month to month with some presentations coming from parish staff and others from group members either individually or as a group panel.

Women of the Heart will meet on the second Thursday of the month from September through May from 10:15 am to 12:00 noon in Donnelly Hall. Listed below are our meeting dates, you are invited to attend on Thursday the monthly gatherings your schedules allow: October 10, November 14, December, January 9, February 13, March 13, April 10, May 8

Should you have any questions or would like to be added to our email list, let us know. We are looking forward to another year of sharing and reflecting on our faith together as Women of the Heart.

HOW CAN WE DISAGREE IN A CIVIL WAY?

This fall, St. Mary will be offering the Just Faith program called "Want to Talk? Communication for Divided Times". This 8 session small group will offer wisdom for navigating disagreement in a healthier way - whether in personal relationships or when working for social change. The group will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7-9pm at St. Mary beginning Oct. 29th. Come learn how Jesus navigated systemic injustice, political unrest, and interpersonal conflict, in order to discern how we might respond to similar situations today. IGNATIAN SCC FALL 2024 REGISTRATION

This six week small church community is an Ignatian prayer experience beginning on Wednesday Oct 16, and runs weekly on Wednesdays to Nov 20. Meetings will be held in Newman Hall, and begin at 7pm and end at 8:30 pm.

Registration contact rzyber@smspnewman.org

The book "Ascending with Ignatius" by Mark Thibodeaux, S.J. will be used. It is based on the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius. Participants will need their own copy of the book, commit to daily prayer reflecting on the book's theme and topic for that day.

The format for each meeting will include small group sharing, prayer, and a brief guided discussion on the week's topic. Etta MacDonagh-Dumler, Ignatian Spirituality Director, will be the guide for this SCC.

CATHOLIC THINKERS BOOK CLUB

On Tue. Oct. 8th we'll meet in the Rectory Lounge to continue our discussion of "The 272: The Families Who Were Enslaved and Sold to Build the American Catholic Church" by Rachel L. Swarns. Called by the New York Times one of the most notable nonfiction books of 2023, "The 272" recounts the involvement of the Maryland Jesuits in the slave trade. It examines the consequences of the 1838 sale of the enslaved to fund the mission that became Georgetown University. Later chapters focus on the Jesuits' efforts since 2016 to apologize and make amends to the descendants and to provide reparations.

All are welcome to join our discussion. For more information, contact David Kieras at kieras@umich.edu.

Sunday Readings

OCTOBER 6 – Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Gn 2:18-24
 Psalm Ps 128:1-6
 Reading II Heb 2:9-11
 Gospel Mk 10:2-16

Conjugal love, lived in fidelity to God’s original plan, is to be one of the principal manifestations of the kingdom proclaimed by Jesus. Through baptism into Christ, we join with him in having one and the same Father.

OCTOBER 13 – Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Wis 7:7-11
 Psalm Ps 90:12-17
 Reading II Heb 4:12-13
 Gospel Mk 10:17-27

When offered the choice between true knowledge or riches, Solomon prays for wisdom of heart. When given the choice between following Jesus or remaining attached to his material wealth, the man chooses his possessions. God’s word challenges us to be attached to Jesus, and to him alone.
