ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

- Mk 12:42-43

32º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En esto, se acercó una viuda pobre y echó dos moneditas de muy poco valor. Llamando entonces a sus discípulos, Jesús les dijo: "Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos".

- Mc 12, 42-43

Parish Insight

MY EXPERIENCE AT THE OVERNIGHT ROTATING SHELTER

By Dan Hurley, Parishioner

This year's election cycle has left many feeling angry, alienated and even despondent. Stories abound of people no longer on speaking terms with colleagues, neighbors and even family members. A common and understandable reaction is to hunker down with like-minded allies, despairing about how awful the other side is and how terrible things will be. I have done plenty of this myself, along with a lot of doom-scrolling. None of this is very Christian, of course. In fact, often it is the opposite.

Fortunately, the Faith Doing Justice ministry at St. Mary's offers many different ways for us to put our faith into action and break the doom-and-gloom. One such opportunity begins this week, as we host the Men's Overnight Rotating Shelter from Monday, November 11th through Monday, November 18th. During that week, we will provide comfort and companionship to local men who lack safe and warm places to go at night. Parish members will provide food and snacks, play board games and watch movies with the men, and then offer a warm, dry space for our guests to sleep.

I first learned of the overnight shelter many (many) years ago when a friend mentioned having spent the night helping out. I thought at the time, "wow, that's awesome, good for you." I also thought, "I could never do that." As time went on, I heard Sunday Readings that talked about how we should be our brother's keeper, and sermons that spoke of the obligation to put our faith into action. Eventually, I realized that it was not enough for me to just show up each Sunday for Mass-instead, I needed to "walk the walk" in some way. And so, one day, without any deep thought, I signed up.

I remember having some trepidation that first time I volunteered-I had little experience with homeless people, I didn't know anyone who would be there, and I brought no discernible skills. Telling myself, "it's only two hours, you can leave early if it's bad," I went. To my surprise (and relief), it was...fine. It turned out I did know someone else working that night. And I met several other parishioners, both students and townies. Once I learned to make the coffee, I even had a relevant skill. And I had several enjoyable conversations with guests, talking about football, movies, and who knows what else. And when my shift was over, I felt grateful for the opportunity and proud that, even if they were just very small baby steps, I had walked the walk of being the kind of person I was called to be.

Since that first night, I have volunteered many more times, each time realizing that working with other parishioners at the Overnight Rotating Shelter (and its companion effort, the Daytime Warming Shelter in January) is among the most fulfilling and enjoyable things I can do. Being a part of this effort in my small way has deepened my faith and helped me become a better person. I have marveled at the generosity of the families that donate food, and the students who give time and effort when I know the semester is getting close to crunch time. And when we come together in this way to help feed the hungry and house the homeless, there are no tribes, there is no yelling or noise. There is only hope and love, just as we are called to create.

THE COMBINED CAMPAIGN

As we enter the fifth week of the public phase of our Combined Campaign, we are blessed to witness the remarkable grace of God working through your generosity and dedication. We are thrilled to announce that we have reached just over $2,170,000 in gifts and pledges, which is now just over half-way (51%) to our campaign's goal! These contributions are transformative and will directly support initiatives that will strengthen our parish infrastructure, support our ministries and expand our outreach programs. Through your support, we are sowing seeds that will grow into lasting, tangible impacts that will benefit our parish community for generations to come.

This campaign is more than a fundraising effort—it is an invitation to deepen our collective faith and bring it to life by serving and supporting others in our parish and beyond. Each of you has played a vital role in this journey, and we are grateful for your gifts, time, and prayer

While we celebrate this milestone, our work continues. We invite those who have not yet participated to prayerfully consider joining us in this mission. Whether through financial contributions, volunteering your time, or sharing your unique talents, every offering is precious and vital. Together, each small act of faith and generosity propels us closer to realizing the full potential of this campaign.

If you feel called to contribute we invite you to make a pledge online at michigan Catholics.org. Your support will help us build a strong parish community, anchored in faith and service.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

All Women of the Parish are Warmly Invited

This year's Women of the Heart theme will reflect on the gift of WISDOM. Recognizing that the Book of Wisdom ascribes the feminine pronoun to wisdom and acknowledging the vast and diverse wisdom that exists among the Women of the Heart members we decided on this theme. The structure and format of the meetings will vary from month to month with some presentations coming from parish staff and others from group members either individually or as a group panel.

Women of the Heart will meet on the second Thursday of the month from September through May from 10:15 am to 12:00 noon in Donnelly Hall. Listed below are our meeting dates, you are invited to attend on Thursday the monthly gatherings your schedules allow: November 14, December 12, January 9, February 13, March 13, April 10, May 8

A WALK WITH OUR BLESSED MOTHER

How does Mary fit in your life? What did her daily life look like? Discover more about Mary, and her role in God's Kingdom, through a new Bible study group beginning this Advent here at St. Mary.

Mary: A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother, will take place over the next several months using materials from Ascension Press. The seven-session study will help participants experience the Gospel through the eyes of Mary.

Participants will complete portions of a workbook at home, then gather every few weeks for a video presentation and discussion. The sessions will be led by a parish team with support from Fr. Dan and Rita Zyber. Student-led sessions will also be available.

Kick-off session: 7:15 p.m. - Thursday, November 21st. Please register online using the QR code, this link /t.ly/gLzXv or contact rzyber@smspnewman.org.

CATHOLIC THINKERS BOOK CLUB

On Tue. Nov. 12th we will meet earlier than usual: from 5:30 to 6:30 in the Loyola Room. Please join us to discuss "The Misunderstood Jew: The Church and the Scandal of the Jewish Jesus" by Amy-Jill Levine. This book challenges us to appreciate the Jewishness of Jesus and his early followers, and it describes the subtleties of anti-Semitism across the centuries. The author, who is Jewish, is a professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt University.

All are welcome to join our discussion. For more information, contact David Kieras at kieras@umich.edu.

NOVEMBER 10 – Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I 1 Kgs 17:10-16
 Psalm Ps 146:7-10
 Reading II Heb 9:24-28
 Gospel Mk 12:38-44

The Lord provides for Elijah’s need as the widow of Zarephath shares with him from her want. Her generosity is mirrored in the widow in the temple who gives from her poverty and not from power, privilege or excess. In Jesus, God became poor for us, offering himself to take away our sins.

NOVEMBER 17 – Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I Dn 12:1-3
 Psalm Ps 16:5,8-11
 Reading II Heb 10:11-14, 18
 Gospel Mk 13:24-32

At the end, the Son of Man will return with the great power and glory, placing his enemies under his feet. Those whose names are in the Book shall live forever in light and joy.
