CELEBRATING OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE THROUGH DANCE

BY ROSA LUZ BELTRAN - POSTIGO, HISPANIC/LATINO MINISTRY CO-ORDINATOR SMSP

Our Hispanic community at St. Mary is celebrating its 25th anniversary and over this time I have been able to see it grow, get to know it, and love it more each day.

The celebration of the Virgin of Guadalupe every December is the most important celebration of the year in our community. Seeing the enthusiasm that its main leaders such as Patricia, Guisela, Magda, Everardo, Leila and Reyna, among others, put into making this important feast of the Mother of Our Lord Jesus an unforgettable tribute, is very moving. Not only do they arrive every day for the Novena and Rosary Prayer before 6 in the morning to the Church carrying their rosaries and their delicious breads baked in advance and the delicious traditional drinks: champurrado, atole and hot chocolate, but after praying and singing they go to work hard for all day long.

One of the most beautiful and colorful traditions in the tribute to Our Lady of Guadalupe is the Aztec Dance, performed by parishioners of our Hispanic community and their daughters and sons. The leaders of the Aztec Dance, Magda and Guisela, have been preparing several weeks in advance, rehearsing the steps and teaching the new boys and girls who come each year with their mothers to honor and preserve the vibrant traditions, rich heritage, and pride of belonging to an ancient culture.

Their costumes are carefully embroidered by Mexican artisans and they themselves make them with plumes of colorful feathers. They wear maracas on their ankles to mark the steps to the rhythm of the drums and demonstrate their love and devotion to Our Mother of Guadalupe, Mother of Jesus and of all of us Catholics, by dancing.

According to tradition, the Virgin Mary appeared to a Nahuatl man named Juan Diego (today known as Saint Juan Diego) in December 1531 on Tepeyac Hill, north of Mexico City, where there was a sanctuary dedicated to the female Aztec deity of the earth, Tonantzin, which means "Our Holy Mother" in Nahuatl and continues to be symbolically linked to fertility and the earth. When Catholic missionaries arrived in America, a religious syncretism took place, the unification of two cultures, the European and the indigenous American. Our same Mother from heaven with her dark skin and speaking Nahuatl appeared to Saint Juan Diego and united the hearts of those different cultures forever and accompanies us on the path of life and especially the migrants who came to this great nation seeking a better future for our children.

This is why this celebration of St. Mary Student Parish grows in importance each year. The entire community comes to ask for the intercession of our Patroness of the Americas and this homage is produced, which is at the same time evangelizing and missionary, where tradition, art, culture, dance, gastronomy, color, devotion and mainly sacrifice and love come together.

We invite you to participate as every year in this beautiful celebration that begins with the Novena or prayer of the Rosary and Mañanitas at 6:30 am from December 4 to 12 and culminates with the mass and party on the 12th at 7 pm.

Long live Our Virgin of Guadalupe!

Aztec dance during the Mass of Guadalupe in December 2023

We invite you to join us in celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe! The celebration includes a bilingual Mass with guides in English to help you fully experience and understand its significance. The event will feature Aztec dance and a reenactment of the Virgin Mary's appearance to Juan Diego.

We also encourage you to participate in the Novena leading up to the feast day. On the day of the celebration, we kindly ask if you can bring a dish to share with the community as part of the festivities.

We look forward to celebrating together this beautiful tradition!

PLEASE NOTE THAT ON DECEMBER 12, THERE WILL BE NO 5:10 PM MASS AS WE WILL CELEBRATE THE GUADALUPE MASS AT 7:00 PM INSTEAD.

COMBINED CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Thank you to everyone who has already supported St. Mary Student Parish's Combined Capital Campaign! We continue to make wonderful progress. As of Tuesday, Nov. 26, 128 parish families have contributed $2.75 million in pledges and gifts. We are now 65% of the way to reaching our goal of $4.25 million! All of this has been accomplished with just 7% of our parish households participating thus far. Imagine what we can accomplish if all of our parishioners support this historic effort!

This weekend's Blessing of the Gifts provides an opportunity to honor and thank all those who have contributed to the campaign. As we strive toward our goal of $4.25 million, we will be extending invitations to supporters from outside the parish – whether that be alumni, parents of students and alumni, or other contributors – to invest in the campaign.

If you have not yet had an opportunity to return your pledge card, consider Jesus' story of the widow's offering at the temple in Mark 12: 41-44. After watching the widow place two small coins, worth very little, into the offering, Jesus called together his disciples and said:

"Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything — all she had to live on."

Our combined campaign is not seeking equal giving among parishioners, but equally sacrificial giving. As you prayerfully consider your support to the campaign, please know that every gift is deeply appreciated by St. Mary's! Everyone's equivalent of two small coins will look different. However, if all respond with a generous heart – like the poor widow – we will certainly achieve our goal! To make a pledge, please contact the parish office or visit [michigan Catholics.org/capitalcampaigndonate/](http://michigan Catholics.org/capitalcampaigndonate/).

“Blessing of the Gifts” Weekend December 7 & 8

We will bless the gifts received for the Advent Giving Tree, and the pledges made for the Capital Campaign.

If you have not done so, we encourage you to bring your completed pledge cards with you to place in the donation baskets. If you'd like to submit your pledge card before that weekend, please drop it off at the front office.

Thank you again to all who have supported both of these stewardship efforts!

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION DECEMBER 9

WOMEN OF THE HEART

All Women of the Parish are Warmly Invited to our next meeting on Thursday, December 12.

This year's Women of the Heart theme will reflect on the gift of WISDOM. Recognizing that the Book of Wisdom ascribes the feminine pronoun to wisdom and acknowledging the vast and diverse wisdom that exists among the Women of the Heart members we decided on this theme.

Women of the Heart will meet on the second Thursday of the month from September through May from 10:15 am to noon in Donnelly Hall. Listed below are our meeting dates, you are invited to attend on Thursday the monthly gatherings your schedules allow: December 12, January 9, February 13, March 13, April 10, May 8

CATHOLIC THINKERS BOOK CLUB

Tuesday December 10 @ 7:00 pm

All are welcome to join us on Tue. Dec. 10th from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the Loyola Room to discuss "Small Things Like These" by Claire Keegan. This short historical novel is the story of an ordinary man in a small Irish town who discovers the secret of the local convent's shocking mistreatment of unwed mothers and their babies. This situation is based on real life events that have become known as the scandal of the Magdalene laundries. "Small Things" has been adapted into a film of the same name which is currently being shown in the U.S.

THANK YOU FROM AFRICA

Hello Parishioners,

At this time of year we are remembering your great generosity to our Children and Mothers and giving you thanks from our hearts! As I visited St Francis Xavier Primary School...the next recipient of your Gift of a precious water tank. I was so saddened by the structures of the School. So of course after the Water Tank begins to flow with the precious water provided by your kindness...we hope and pray we will be able to build them brick and cement structures. Mr. Emmanuel the Principal was elated with the news. We pray this will come true for them next year all through God's care and providence for his children. Celebrate and Give Thanks!

God bless you all!

DECEMBER 8 – Second Sunday of Advent

Reading I Bar 5:1-9
 Psalm Ps 126:1-6
 Reading II Phil 1:4-6, 8-11
 Gospel Lk 3:1-6

The Lord has done great things, leading his people out of slavery to the glorious splendor of Jerusalem. Let us make ready the way of the Lord by abounding in love and in works of justice.

DECEMBER 15 – Third Sunday of Advent

Reading I Zep 3:14-18a
 Psalm (Ps) Is 12:2-6
 Reading II Phil 4:4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always! Great in our midst is the Holy One of Israel, a mighty savior. It is he whom John foretold; it is he who will baptize in the Holy Spirit.
