ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

4th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish."
- Jn 10:27-28a

4º DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Jesús dijo a los judíos: "Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen. Yo les doy la vida eterna y no perecerán jamás".
- Jn 10, 27-28

Parish Insight

BLESSED MARY

BY CAROL DUBRITSKY, RESIDENT PARISHIONER

She was named Miriam (Maryam), a young woman in living in Nazareth, the daughter of Anne and Joachim. Life unfolded for her in unimaginable ways. Betrothed to a man named Joseph, she was visited by the Archangel Gabriel and told that she would conceive a child who was to be the Son of God. And for the first of what would prove to be many occasions, Mary “pondered these things in her heart.”

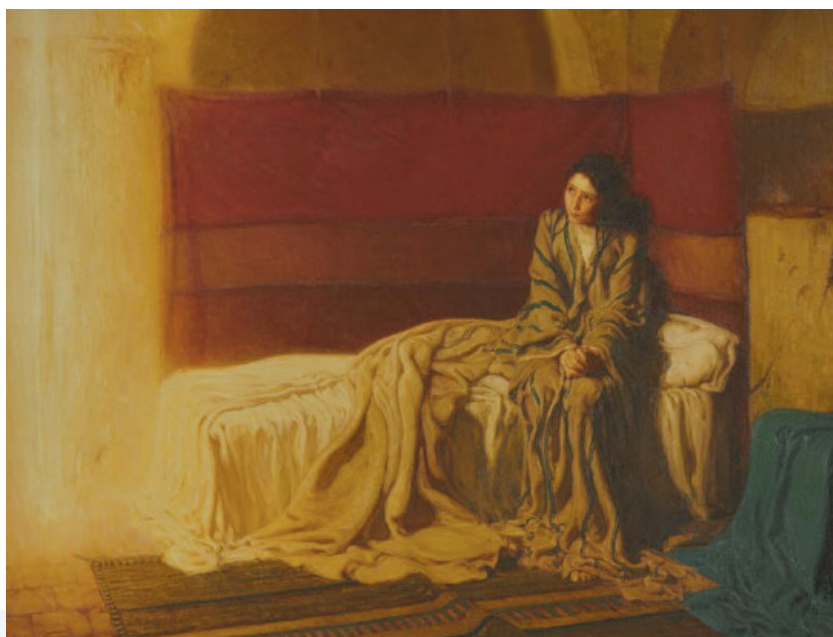

Mary was blessed, but also very much a woman who had her own challenges and faith journey. After the visitation by Gabriel and learning of her cousin Elizabeth’s pregnancy, she traveled more than 80 miles to stay with her. After her marriage, she and Joseph made the long journey to Bethlehem. Tired and exhausted she gives birth to Jesus in a manger. At the presentation in the temple, Simeon’s words to the couple are filled with promise but also caution as he tells Mary, “and a sword will pierce your heart.” And still later with threats from King Herod, she and Joseph flee into Egypt to save their son. It was a busy and often demanding life.

We don’t know details about the days that follow as Mary and Joseph raised their Son. I like to think it was like the lives of many of us throughout the centuries filled with joy, laughter, decisions, hardships, and everyday chores. We do learn that Mary and Joseph search for Jesus for three days when he remains in the temple, rather than return home with his family. Another one of the occasions I like to think Mary, perhaps frantic, pondered this in her heart. She continued as a presence in Jesus’ life and stood at the foot of the cross, receiving his body after the crucifixion. Loving, faithful, sorrowful and in many ways determined and fearless.

Throughout her lifetime, Mary was many things to many people: daughter, prophet, cousin, loving wife and mother, faithful disciple and friend. Her life presented her with challenges that were commonplace at times, and at other times demanded the utmost trust and faith in God.

There are so many ways we can come to know Mary better and enter a relationship with her that will bring us closer to Jesus. She is available to us all and has no demands on how we come to her. Her life is rich in experiences through which we can come to know her and ask her to walk with us on our journey- in joy, daily living, sorrow, challenges and celebrations. She has witnessed and lived them all and waits with open hands and heart. She will grant us love, clarity, peace and hope. Invite her in.

Congratulations to all of our Michigan Catholic graduates! May God bless you on your journey, and may you always feel at home here at St. Mary.

SEEKING SOMETHING MORE? OCIA COULD BE FOR YOU.

It can be hard to feel hope and peace in a world that often seems chaotic and dark. But our risen Lord – the one who conquered chaos – assures us there is more.

A deeper faith, a fuller life – it's what many people seek when they inquire about joining the Church, or completing the sacraments. They're not always sure what to expect, but they are open to beginning their faith journey through the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults). As we open ourselves to God's nudges – then take those steps to learn and grow together, we discover that God always provides so much more than we ever dreamed.

Perhaps one of our newest members of the Church says it best:

"If you would have asked me two years ago what I thought about becoming Catholic, I would've told you I just didn't think it mattered all that much. It had indeed been something that I had thought about, but almost always with the resolution that the Catholic Church was not who She claimed to be and that I didn't need to convert. But what started as a point of skepticism and debate with many of my Catholic friends, eventually evolved into a longing for full communion with the Church.

Over the past nine months, I have had the incredible blessing of walking through the OCIA process with about 30 others. I write this on the evening of Holy Thursday, and my heart bursts for the opportunity to come before the Lord in the Eucharist and receive Him there with all of you. I cannot help but think about the way that He has run after me, and so many others, to bring us to this point." Chip Peterson, Class of 2025

For those seeking to be part of the Church, our weekly gatherings of our OCIA group will begin again in September. Please consider OCIA if:

- You're an adult who has never been baptized
- You were baptized in another faith and would like to become Catholic
- You were baptized Catholic, but never confirmed

Feel free to contact us and talk. We'd love to help you discover if God is calling you to "more."

“YOU ARE MY CHOSEN Witnesses”

Isaiah 43:10

EACH YEAR, THE DIOCESAN SERVICES APPEAL (DSA) UNITES ALL 71 PARISHES OF OUR DIOCESE, UNITING US TOGETHER TO ACHIEVE A COMMON GOOD THAT IS FAR MORE THAN ANY INDIVIDUAL OR ANY SINGLE PARISH COULD ACCOMPLISH ALONE.

“You Are my Chosen Witnesses.” This scripture from the Prophet Isaiah shows us that we are called to bear witness to God’s mercy. This is not merely a passive role; it involves actively proclaiming the truth of God’s sovereignty and faithfulness. The call to be witnesses indicates that our existence and experiences are meant to reflect God’s glory and truth to the nations.

There are many ways we can be witnesses, but one important way is by participating in our Diocesan Services Appeal. Our DSA offerings and their effects are a powerful testimony to both our community and to the broader society of our Catholic faith.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal offers an incredible opportunity to demonstrate one way for us to be witnesses. By supporting our parishes and the many ministries of our wider Catholic Church – through the DSA – we can truly proclaim that we are “Chosen Witnesses.”

For more details scan the QR Code or visit dioceseoflansing.org/DSA

Diocesan Services Appeal 2025 Goal – $5,750,000

In Your infinite wisdom, You have chosen us to be Your witnesses. Grant us the strength and courage to proclaim Your truth in our lives by supporting the needs of the Church through the Diocesan Services Appeal this year.

Honoring 100 Years of Faith and Community at St. Mary Student Parish

As many of our students head out for the summer, we want to share a few key previews of our upcoming Centennial celebrations—perfect for those returning next year! If you're a resident parishioner, be sure to mark your calendars. Full details will be shared this fall!

Centennial Celebration Fall Preview – Save the Dates

- September 21 – All-Parish Outdoor Mass
- October 2 – Evening Reflection with Sister Barbara, OP, President of the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago, will speak on "Mary and the Scriptures."
- October 3 – Homecoming Tailgate Held the Friday before the game, this is a great opportunity for alumni to visit, see recent renovations, and reconnect. All are welcome!
- December 7 – Centennial Coffee & Donuts after the 10 AM Mass, enjoy fellowship and view a special exhibit highlighting our Centennial year.
- December 8 – Immaculate Conception Mass & Final Centennial Reception. Join us for a special Mass followed by a showcase and strolling dinner as we conclude our Centennial celebrations.

Happening this weekend: May Crowning

Please join us as we honor and celebrate our Blessed Mother on Mother's Day, May 11th. We will hold two May Crowning celebrations in the courtyard as weather permits. The first will be after the 2 PM Spanish Mass, the next will be after the 5 PM Intercultural Mass. There will be light refreshments after each May Crowning.
