FINDING GOD IN THE SACRAMENTS

When was the last time you were really excited about something or someone? Perhaps it was when you met your grandbaby for the first time or when your college-aged child came home for the first time after being away at school, or maybe it was when you heard that the first United States-born pope was chosen. I'm sure we all have a different answer. Think about encountering Jesus in the Sacraments, does that excite you? God hopes so. He loves us so much that He provides grace to bring us closer to Him and grace for us to bring Him to our neighbor. He does this all through the great gift of His Sacraments. Please see a few of our Sacramental Prep coordinators' reflections below.

Reflection by Family Ministry Coordinator – Karen Foster

As the Family Ministry coordinator at St. Mary Student Parish, I have had the responsibility and great privilege of journeying with the Family Faith second-grade children who were preparing for receiving their First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. The children first focused on the Sacrament of Reconciliation where they learned that we are all sinners and that sometimes we “miss the mark” but that Jesus is always there for us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. They experienced how wonderful it is to repent and have their sins forgiven.

The children then learned about the Sacrament of the Eucharist. They learned about the Mass and the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and they were taught what a special gift receiving Jesus in the Eucharist is. The First Holy Communion Mass was held on April 26, 2025 this year and the children were very excited and happy and some were even a bit nervous. I'm sure their nervousness came from wanting to do everything just right, which they all did! They received Jesus in a beautiful Mass and it was a joyful day.

I was also able to witness the air of excitement among the teen Confirmation candidates as the Holy Spirit descended upon them at the Teen Confirmation Mass on May 1, 2025. What really inspired me and touched my heart though, was when one of the second graders, who had received his First Holy Communion just five days earlier, received Holy Communion for only the second time at the Confirmation Mass. The little guy was so reverent while receiving Communion from Fr. Dan and afterward he locked eyes with me. I have never seen anyone so happy, excited, and proud to receive Jesus in the Eucharist than that little boy. I think he truly encountered Jesus and I believe this is what Jesus wants for all of us. We are seeking God in our lives and it is through the Sacraments that He is there for us and where we can find Him.

Reflection by Hispanic /Latino Sacramental Preparation Coordinator – Maribel Rosas

On Saturday, April 26, during a beautiful celebration presided over by our Pastor, Father Kyle Shinseki SJ, 10 children and 5 teenagers from the Hispanic/Latino community received their First Communion, accompanied by their family and friends, who came from other states and even other countries and continents to share with them this special encounter with God, indeed a moment filled with love and glory.

This year has certainly not been easy for our community, as it has been full of challenges, really difficult and sad moments for some of our families. However, seeing the faces of these children and adolescents radiant with joy and excitement as they were walking to receive our Lord, to find him while receiving for the first time the Holy Eucharist, my heart filled with joy, faith and hope for a better time. I was moved to tears thinking of all the challenges that our families had to face to attend our sessions, overcoming fear is not easy but knowing that God is with us kept us going.

I am deeply grateful to the team of catechists who donated their time and energy on many afternoons despite their jobs and schoolwork, to the parents, and especially to two “abuelitas” (grandmothers), who, despite the storms they faced, made sure their grandchildren did not miss classes nor miss receiving the Sacrament. They are undoubtedly an example of strength and faith for me and inspire and motivate me to continue this mission.

May God let us continue to nurture this seed of faith planted in our youth and always pray for them so that God our Lord may make it grow and remain forever in their hearts.

Special thanks to Noah Smith, the Jesuit novice who supported us in this catechesis program, sharing and inspiring our young people with his YES! to the Lord, to Fr. Dan Dixon who has mentored and guided our team, and to Karen Foster who is a great inspiration to give the best to the families attending our programs.

Teen Confirmation Co-Coordinator – Charlotte Probst

I have been so blessed to walk with the young adults of our parish this year on their journey to Confirmation. I am always moved by the desire for God that He has placed in their hearts. Listening to them express their excitement to be Confirmed members of the Church is an inspiring reminder that our journey as disciples of Christ, although it can be challenging at times, is also always a cause for rejoicing. I'm honored to be a witness of how they have grown in their faith—whether by developing deeper ties and friendships in their faith community, deciding to read the Bible regularly, starting a prayer journal, collecting donations for relief efforts, or helping an elderly neighbor rake leaves.

There are so many seeds of goodness in our world, and it's been a blessing to watch as God causes them to blossom in these students through their service to community and love of Him. May the witness of our students inspire us to embrace our own call as the hands and feet of Christ—come, Holy Spirit!

Teen Confirmation Co-Coordinator – Kyle Zill

As a Confirmation coordinator, I have been so fortunate to help shape and share in the year-long experience that our students take on in preparation of receiving this incredible sacrament. Shortly after kicking off our Confirmation program this past Fall, I was quite surprised to find myself in the position to receive a new sacrament - that being the Anointing of the Sick. In contrast to the long process of preparation for our Confirmation students and the joyful grandeur of the Confirmation Mass, I was nearly overwhelmed by the immediacy and simplicity of the Anointing of the Sick. But in a small, quiet moment with my family, sitting with Fr. Dan in his office, I found a familiar peace in a new way.

I felt very fully how God meets us where and when and how we need Him most. How truly blessed we are to have such gifts in the sacraments to find - and be found by - our loving God.
