WHAT ST. IGNATIUS LOYOLA GAVE US

By Jim Manney, Resident Parishioner

We celebrate St Ignatius's Feast day on July 31. The whole month of July is Ignatius month—a time to honor this great saint and to reflect on what he gave us.

Europe in the sixteenth century was a world in turmoil. Social structures were unravelling; the church was riven by controversy and division; new ideas, new ways to make money, exposure to new cultures were upending the conventional wisdom about how to live. It was a time not unlike our own.

Ignatius was the man for that moment – and for our moment. He offered a new way of thinking about God. The old way held that God was mainly found in religious places and religious activities; Ignatius said that God was found in all things. The old thinking saw God as a stern lawgiver and judge; Ignatius saw him as an infinitely generous giver of gifts. The old idea saw God as elusive and remote; Ignatius said he was near at hand energetically laboring in the world.

This attitude led to new ways of living a spiritual life. Before the Jesuits came along, the model of holy living was a quiet life of prayer in a monastery or convent. It was something that monk and nuns did, not ordinary people. The Jesuits changed all that. Ignatian spirituality was for ordinary people living busy lives. It saw God as present everywhere in the world: Christ plays in ten thousand places, / Lovely in limbs, and lovely in eyes not his, as the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins wrote.

Ignatius said that Christ beckons us to join him in his work. That means our choices are crucial. To say that Ignatius thought good decisions were important is an understatement. They are of transcendent importance, literally a matter of salvation. Ignatius believed that we come to know God and find the meaning of our lives in wise use of the “things of the world”—our work and relationships, the manifold opportunities for joy and growth we find in the world we live in. The choices we make about these things are just about the most important thing we do.

Ignatius taught us to approach life with a reflective mindset. Since God is present in all things, including—especially—our daily experience, it's vitally important that we notice him. The Ignatian mind is self-aware, alert to the ebb and flow of our inner life. It's keenly alert to our spiritual and psychological blind spots—the ways we fool ourselves and find reasons to do what we want to do. It's suspicious of the conventional wisdom. It cherishes desires. In the Ignatian view, our deepest desires have been placed in our hearts by God. When we're in touch with our most authentic selves, when we know what we really want, we know what God wants.

That's a lot to celebrate this month. Let's do so, and let's do it with a spirit of gratitude. That's another thing Ignatius taught us. God is showering us with gifts and graces. Our response begins with simple thanks.

Diocesan Service Appeal (DSA)

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal!

As of July 21, we reached out 62.34 % of our goal. If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Your donation will help to fill food pantries, provide mental health and substance abuse treatment, and support restorative justice and prison ministry for our sisters and brothers throughout the Diocese. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

Any size gift, no matter how big or small, makes a difference!

Host Family Opportunity – Exchange Student from México

Pan Atlantic Foundation is looking for a host family for Daniela, a high school exchange student from México who has attended a Catholic school. Could you or someone in our St. Mary community welcome her?

Hosting involves:

- A bed and a shared room (same gender, within 4 years of age)
- A study space
- Meals at home and school

If interested, contact Melinda Ruiz Quiros
bluedacnis@yahoo.es

Helping Neighbors in Need

Four Wheels at a Time

St Vincent de Paul of Lansing is expanding its Car Ministry to include donated vehicles. We need your help. DONATE YOUR VEHICLE TODAY! In the past three years, we have assisted 61 Neighbors in Need (NIN) into slightly used vehicles and 76 NIN with vehicle repairs. This effort has gone a long way in helping the less fortunate to stay out of the Systemic Poverty that lack of mobility creates.

We want to do more & We need your help!

When a NIN is identified, we visit them and assess their transportation needs. We verify they have the income to handle insurance gas and the upkeep that comes with owning a vehicle. Additionally, an investment of $1,500.00 is required that defers the cost of complete safety inspection that every vehicle we deliver must pass.

We have 18 NIN looking for a vehicle. If you can help, please call us at 517 484.5395 ext. 102. Please leave a message and one of our Vincentians will get back to you and explain how easy it is to donate a vehicle.

Upon donating a car, appropriate tax documents will be provided.

Sunday Readings

July 27 – Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I    Gn 18:20-32
Psalm        Ps 138:1-3, 6-8
Reading II    Col 2:12-14
Gospel        Lk 11:1-13

In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer. Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to “ask...seek...knock.” May our prayer open us to God’s will, and so build up his strength within us. In Baptism we have died with Christ and have been raised to life with him.

August 3 – Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I    Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23
Psalm        Ps 90:3-6
Reading II    Col 3:1-5, 9-11
Gospel        Lk 12:13-21

Listen carefully to the voice of the Lord: set your heart on what will last forever. We only fool ourselves if we believe that our possessions will bring us happiness and life. Instead, “grow rich in the sight of the Lord.”

August 10 – Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I    Wis 18:6-9
Psalm        Ps 33:1, 12, 18-22
Reading II    Heb 11:1-2, 8-19
Gospel        Lk 12:32-48

The author of Wisdom speaks of “that night” of exodus from bondage in Egypt when the Lord delivered his chosen people from death. The Lord will come again, perhaps in the midst of night. Let us be prepared for his return. As we walk in darkness, our journey to our heavenly homeland is illumined by faith.
